

Add 12 transparent parts and 4 transparent red parts as shown above

Remove the building blocks indicated by the arrow as shown below

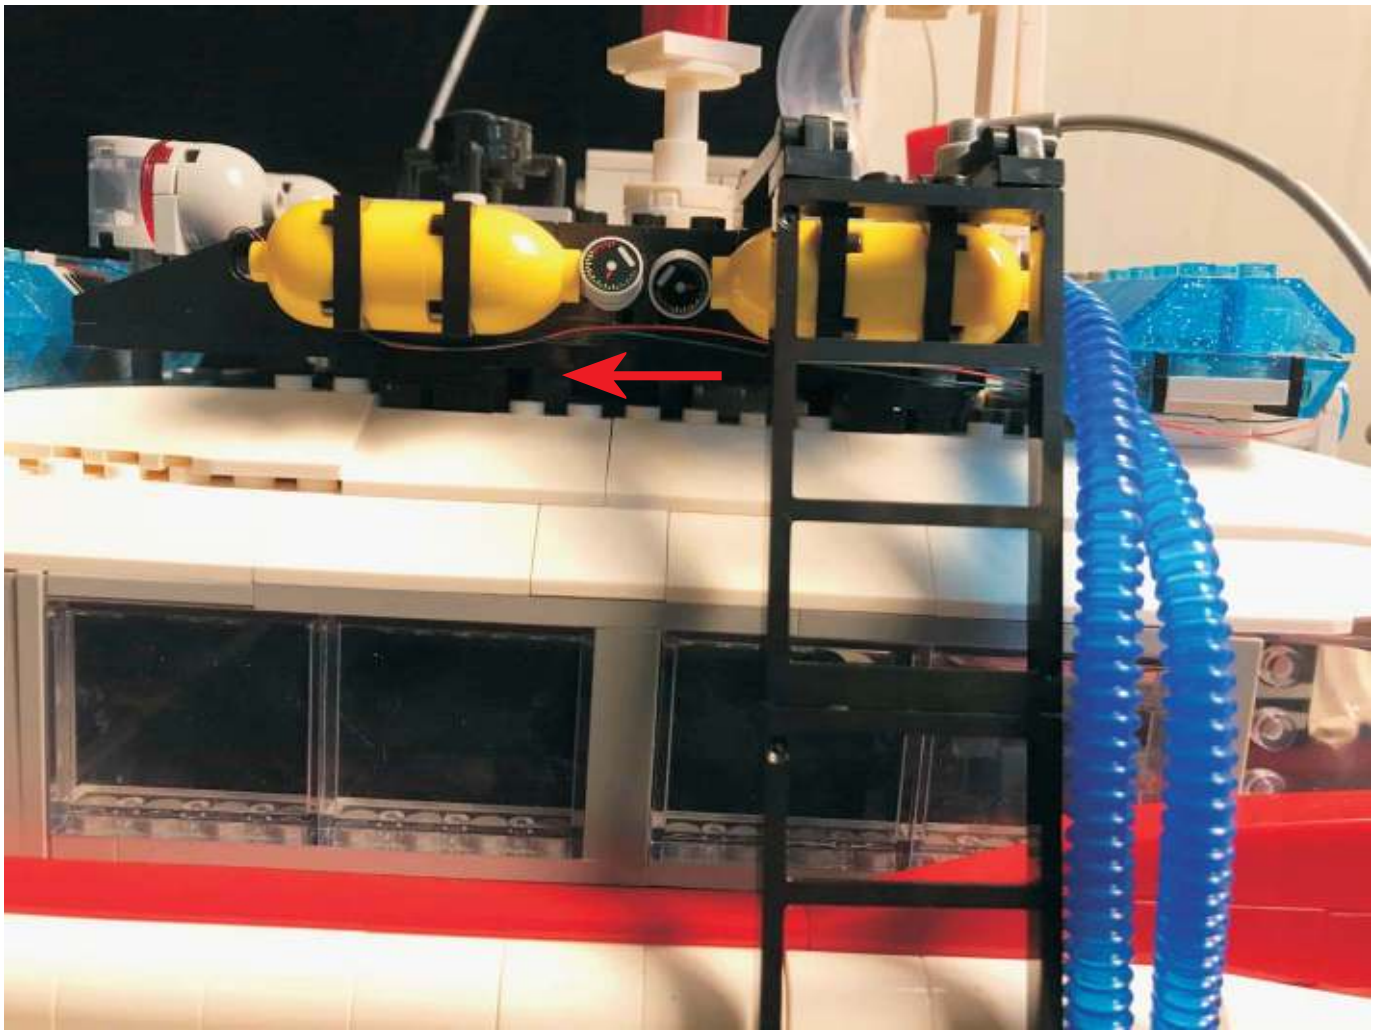

Install the light group in the building blocks and restore

When the installation is complete, remove the building the head and hide the wires the wood is as follows

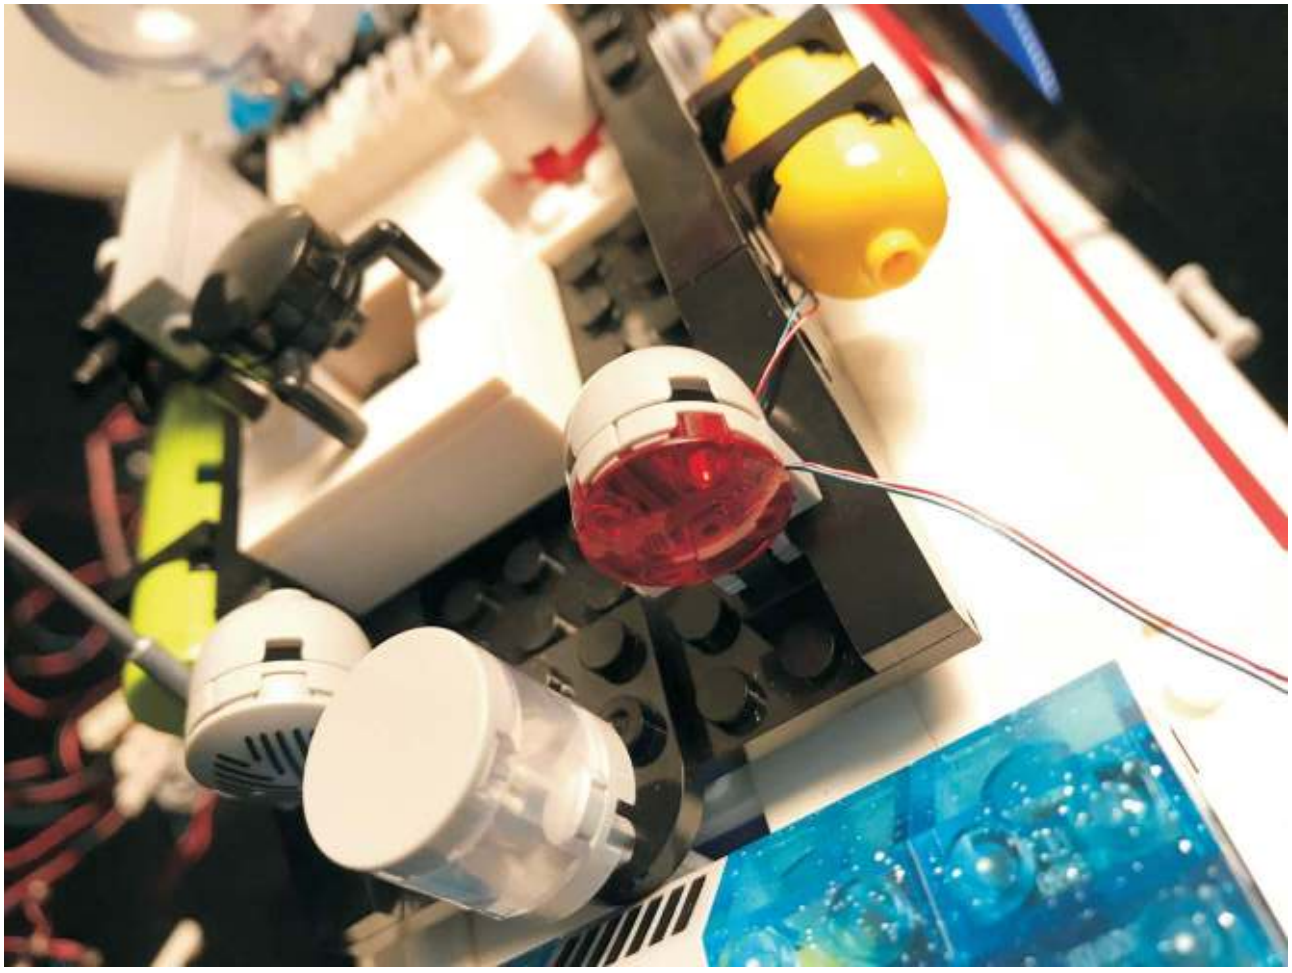

Hide the wire in the building block along the arrow

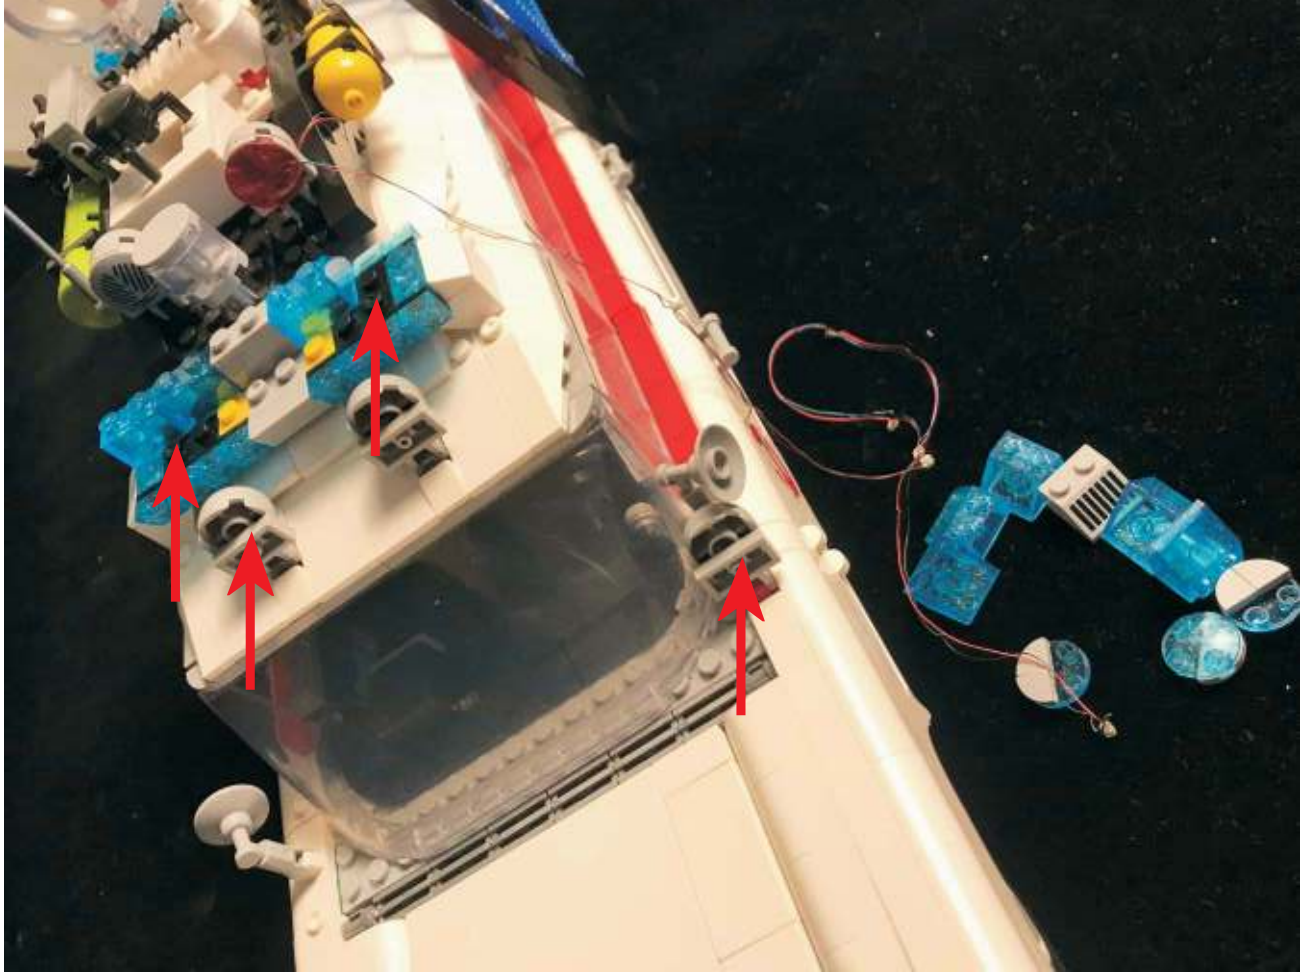

Remove the red building block and install the light group in the building block

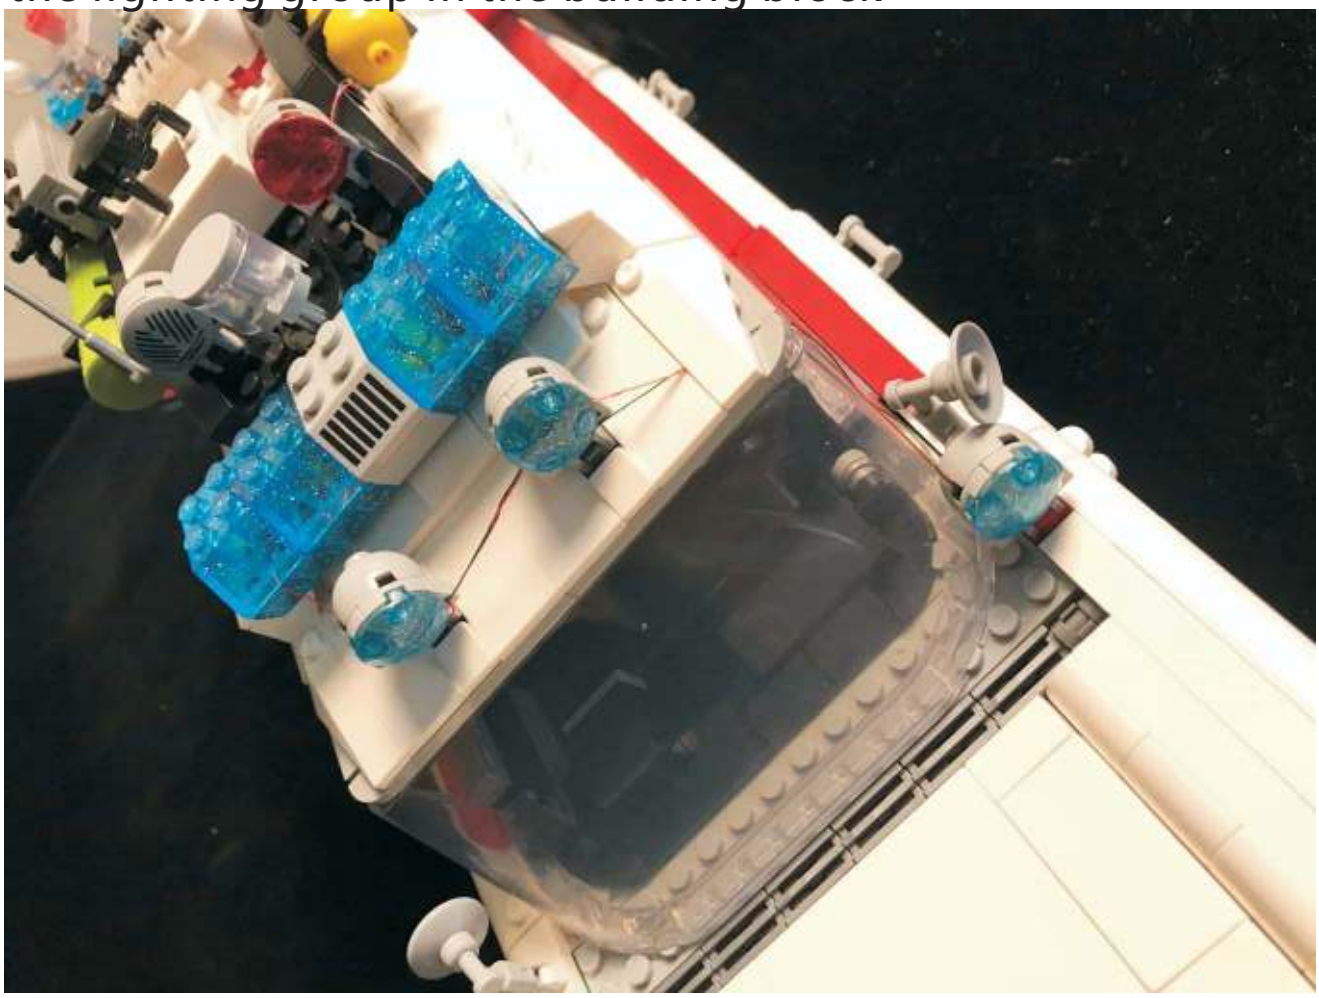

Reduction of building blocks

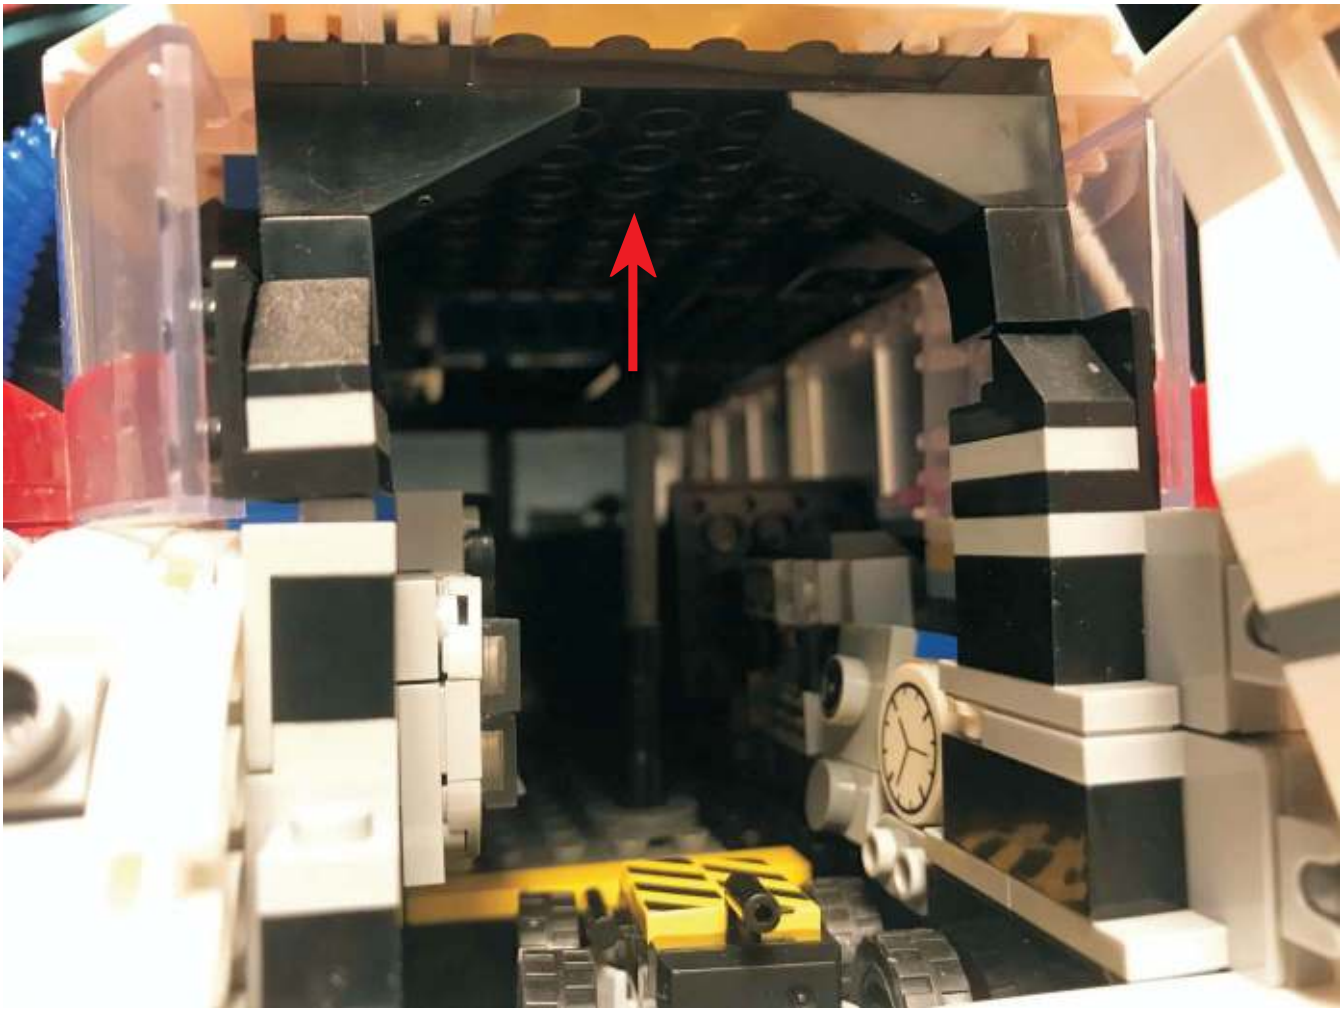

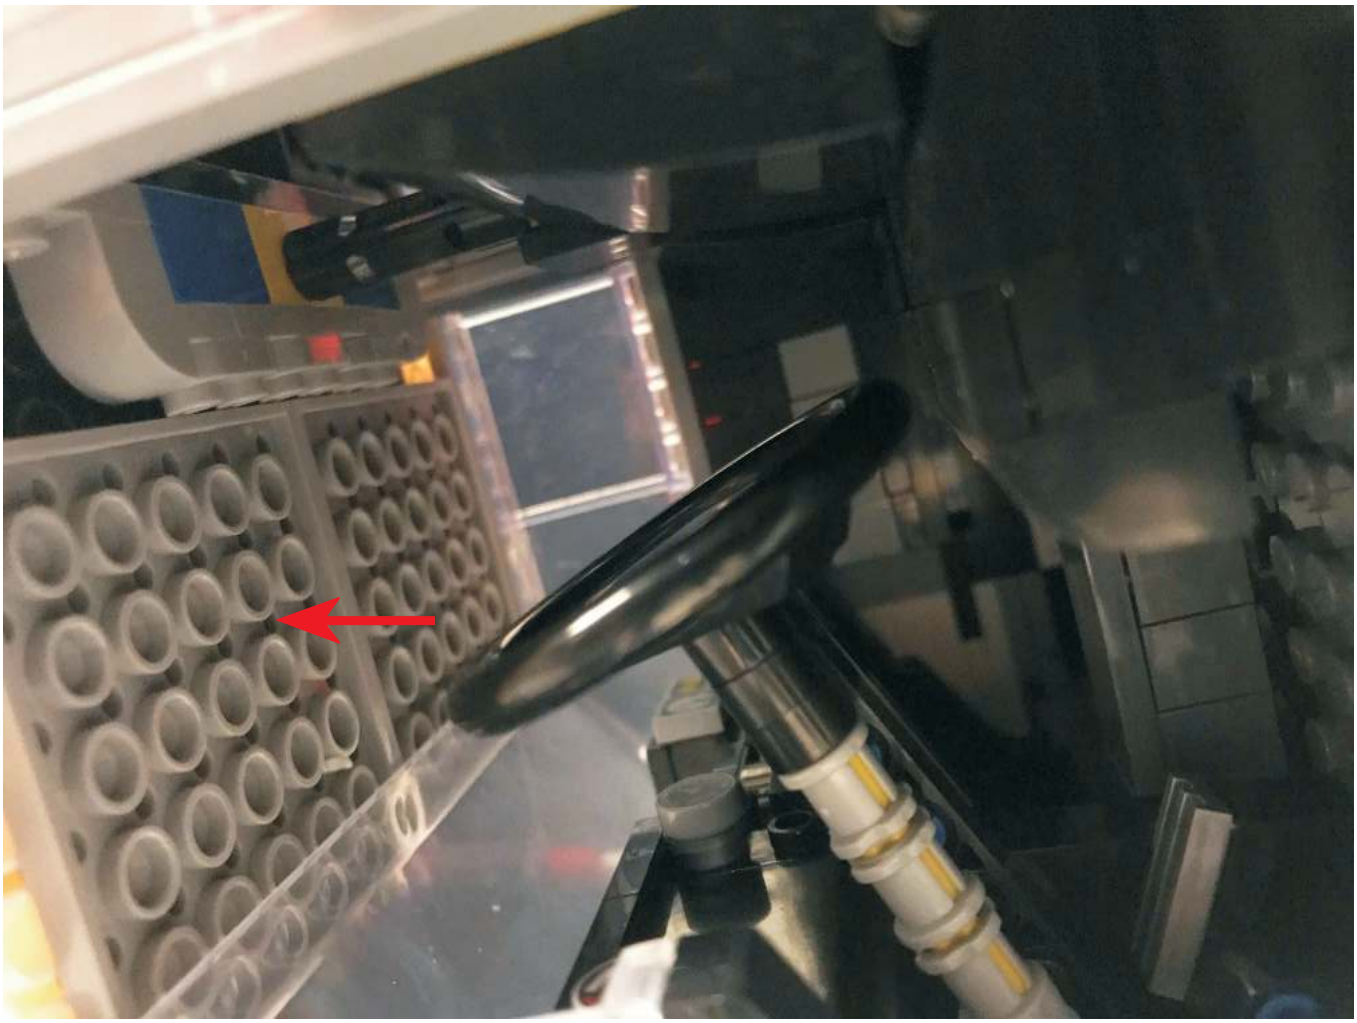

As shown in the diagram, remove the building block and install the lighting group in the building block

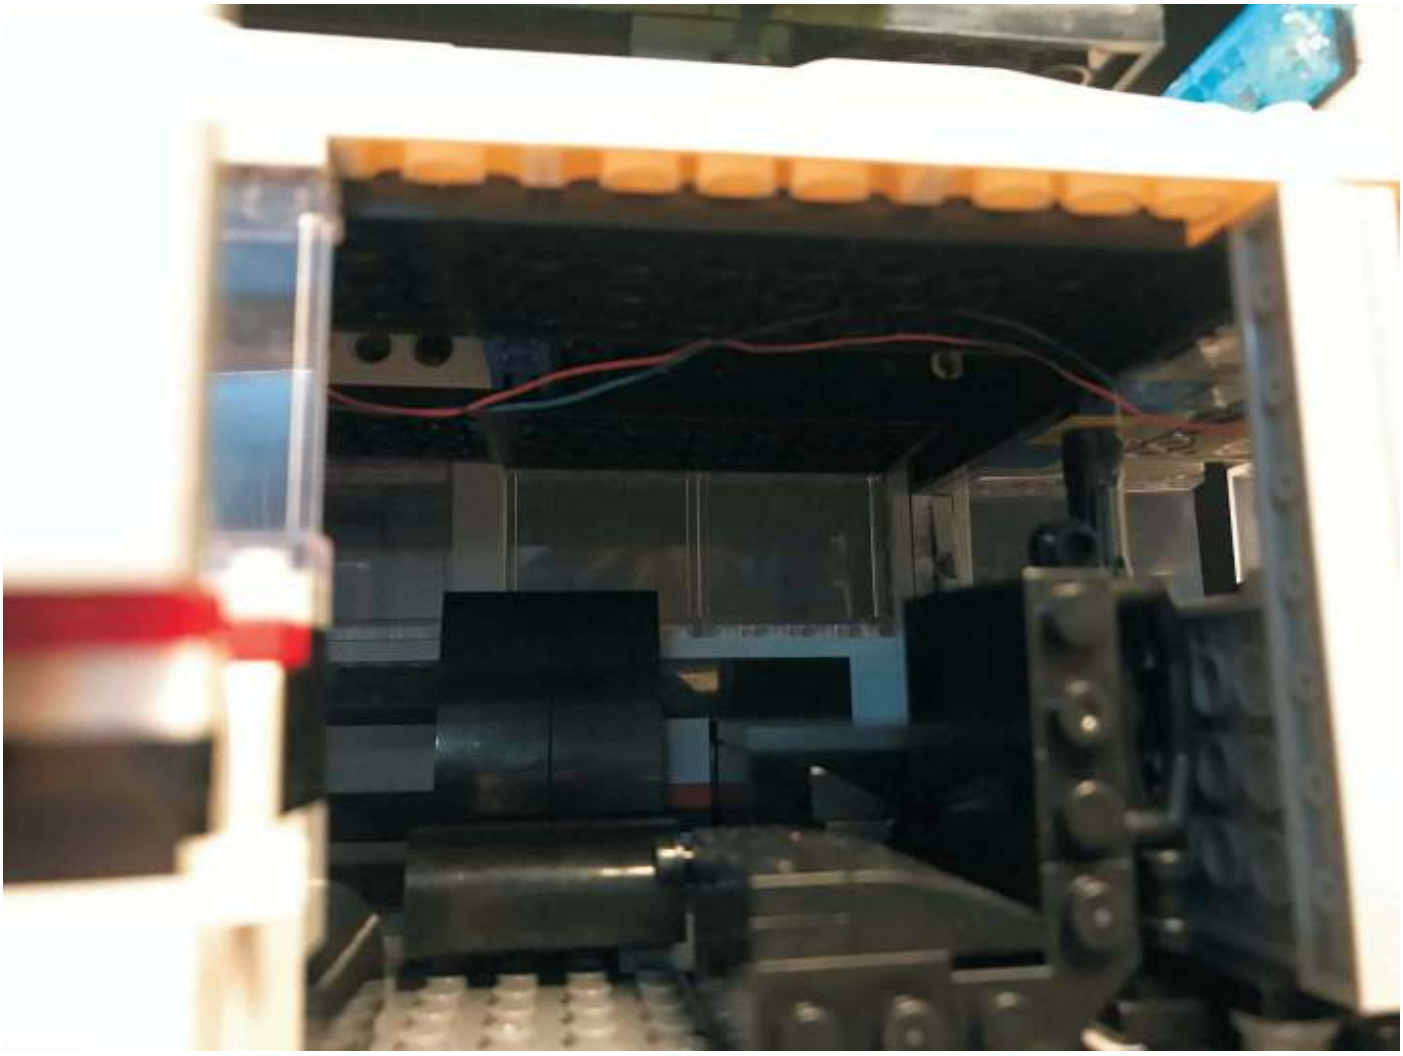

Installation completed

Install the No .2 light set at the location shown in the arrow below

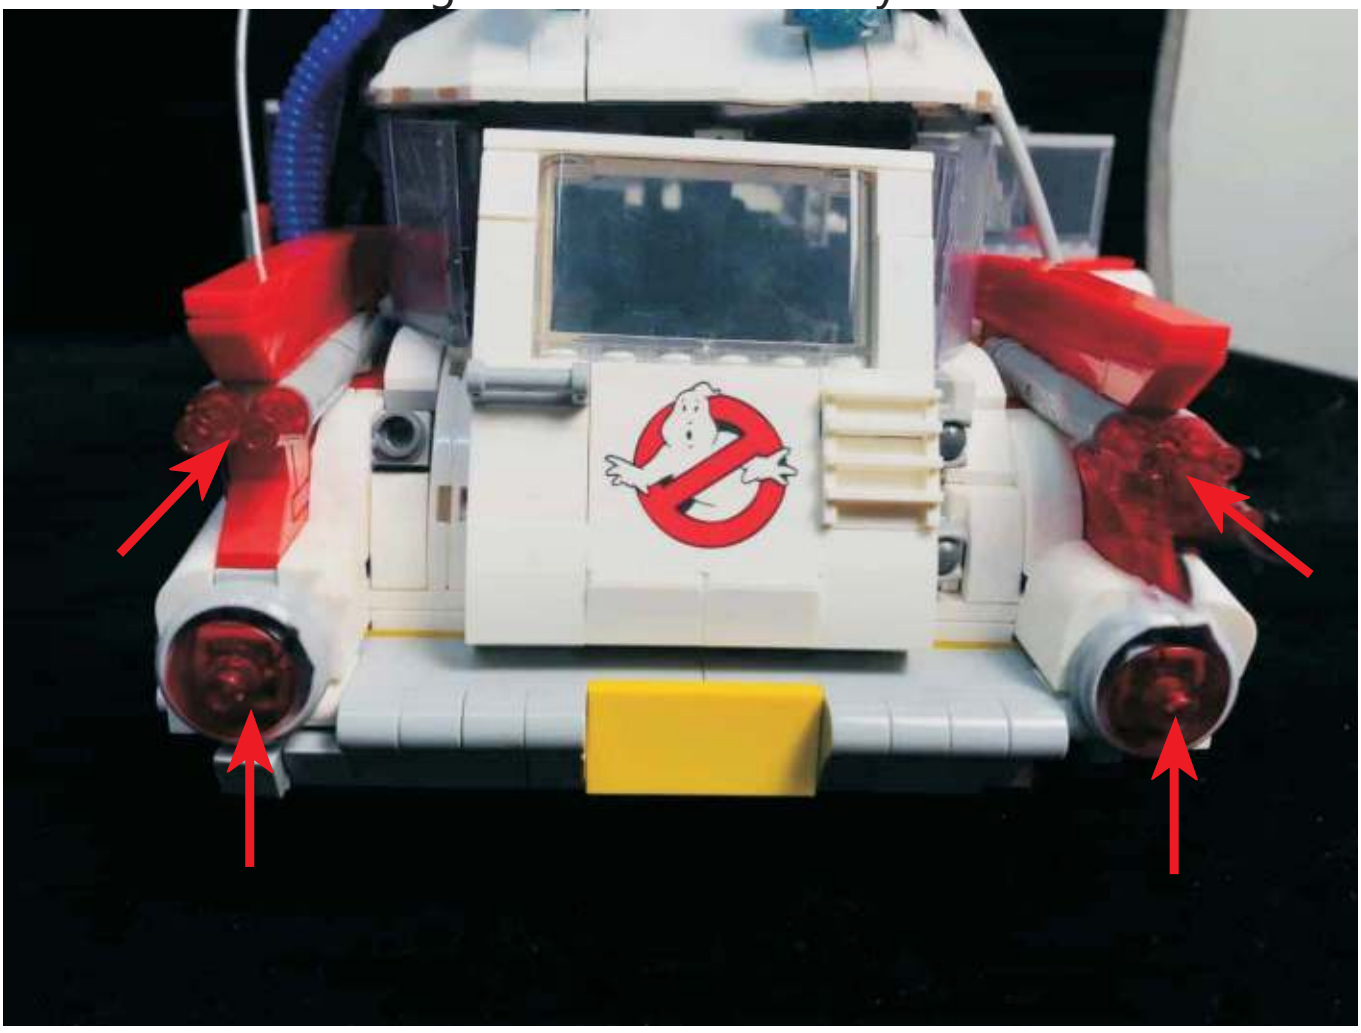

Lead through the car as above

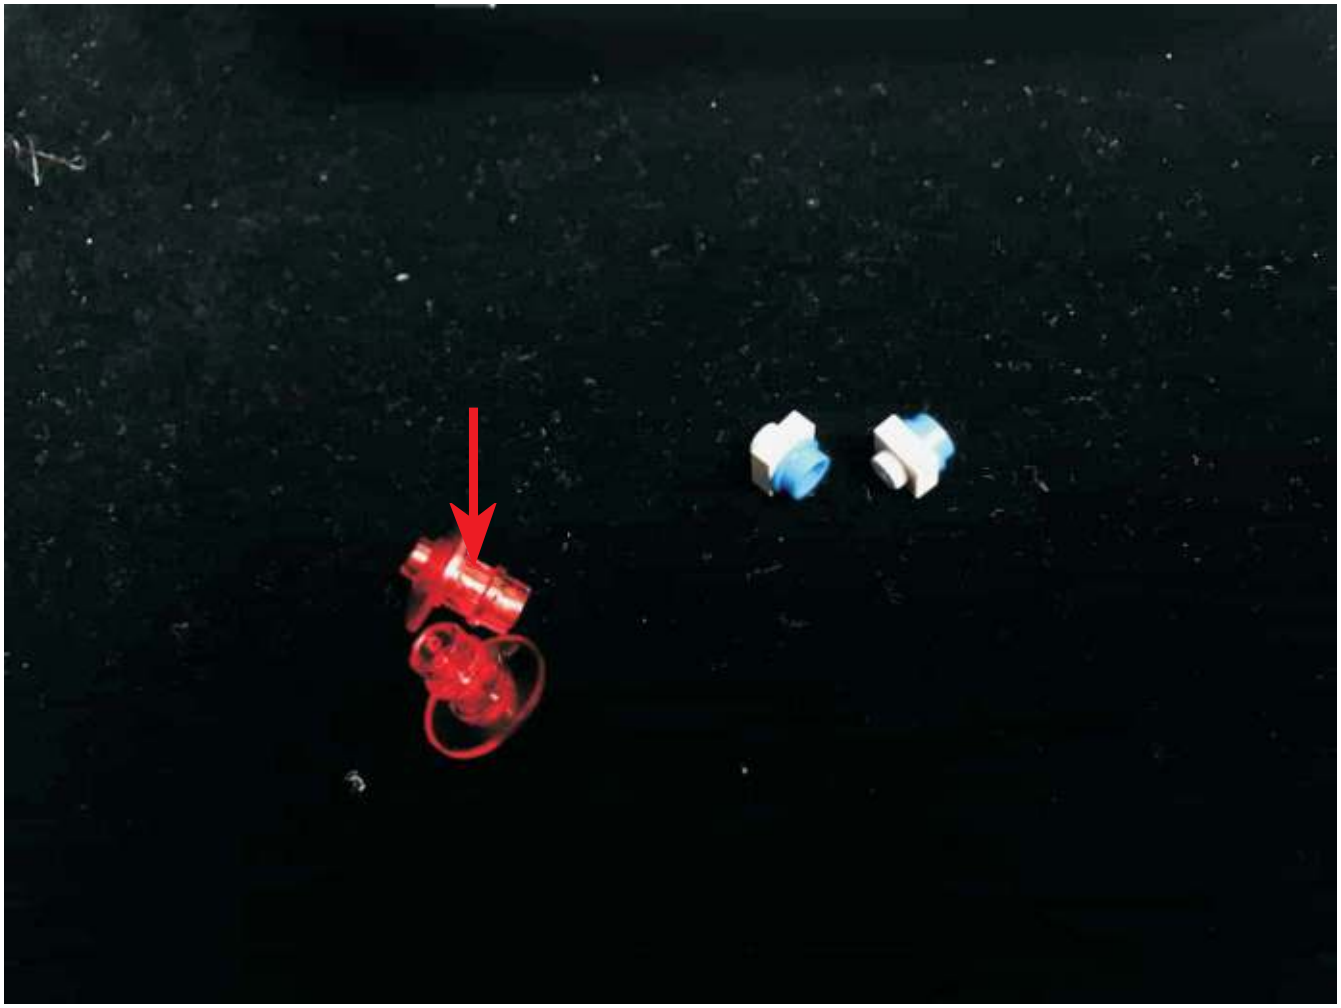

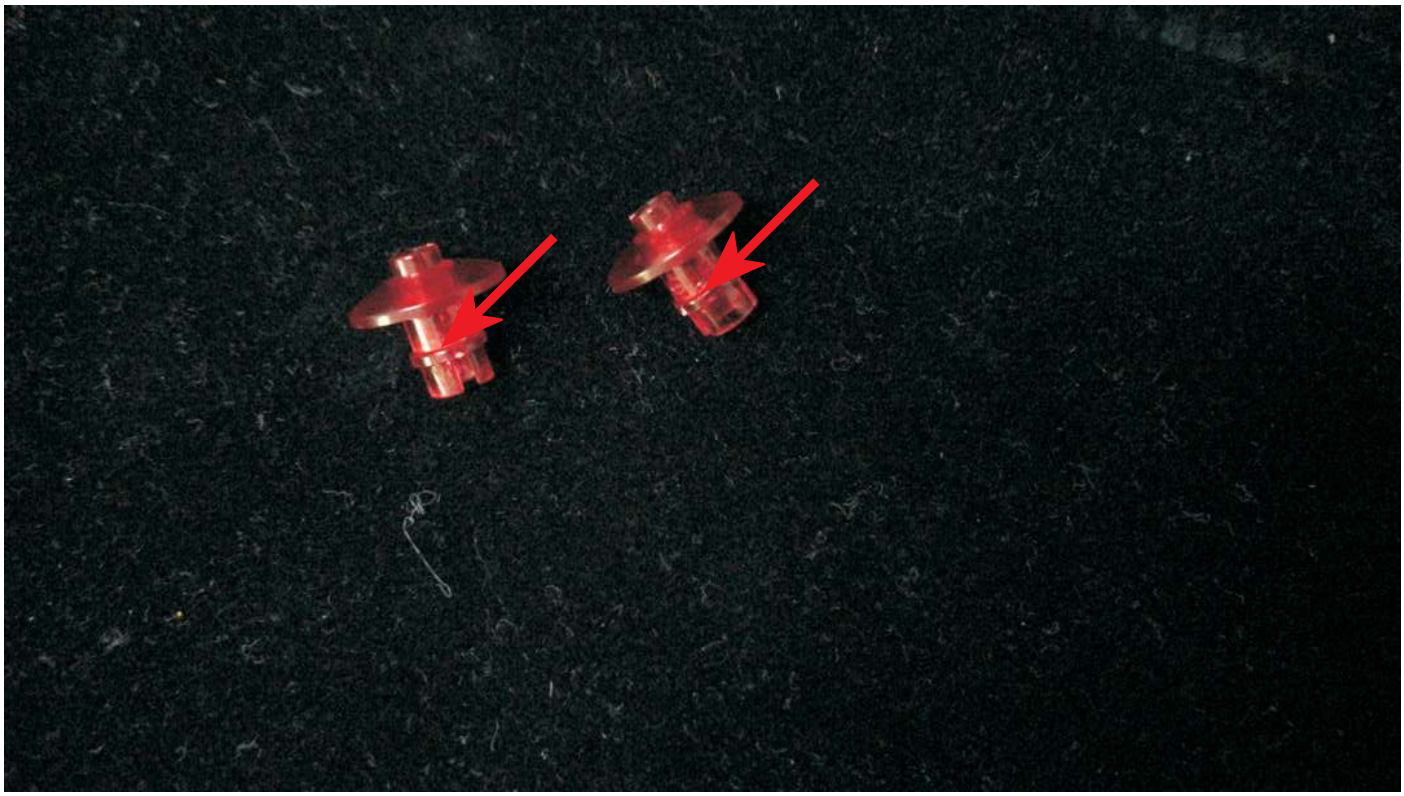

Remove the building blocks indicated by the arrow

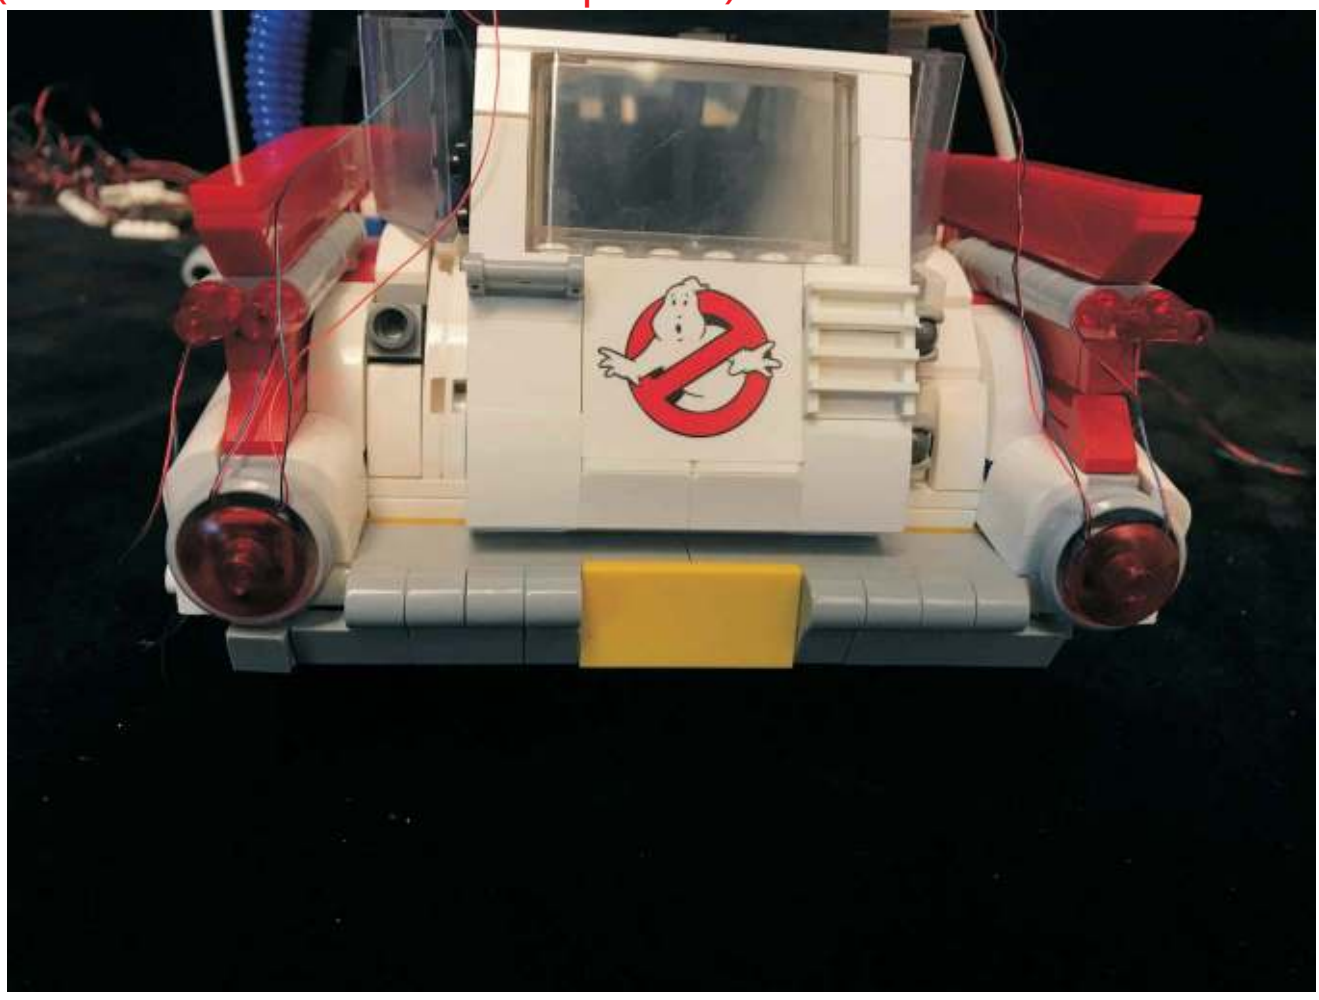

Remove the building blocks below and replace the red building blocks indicated by the arrow

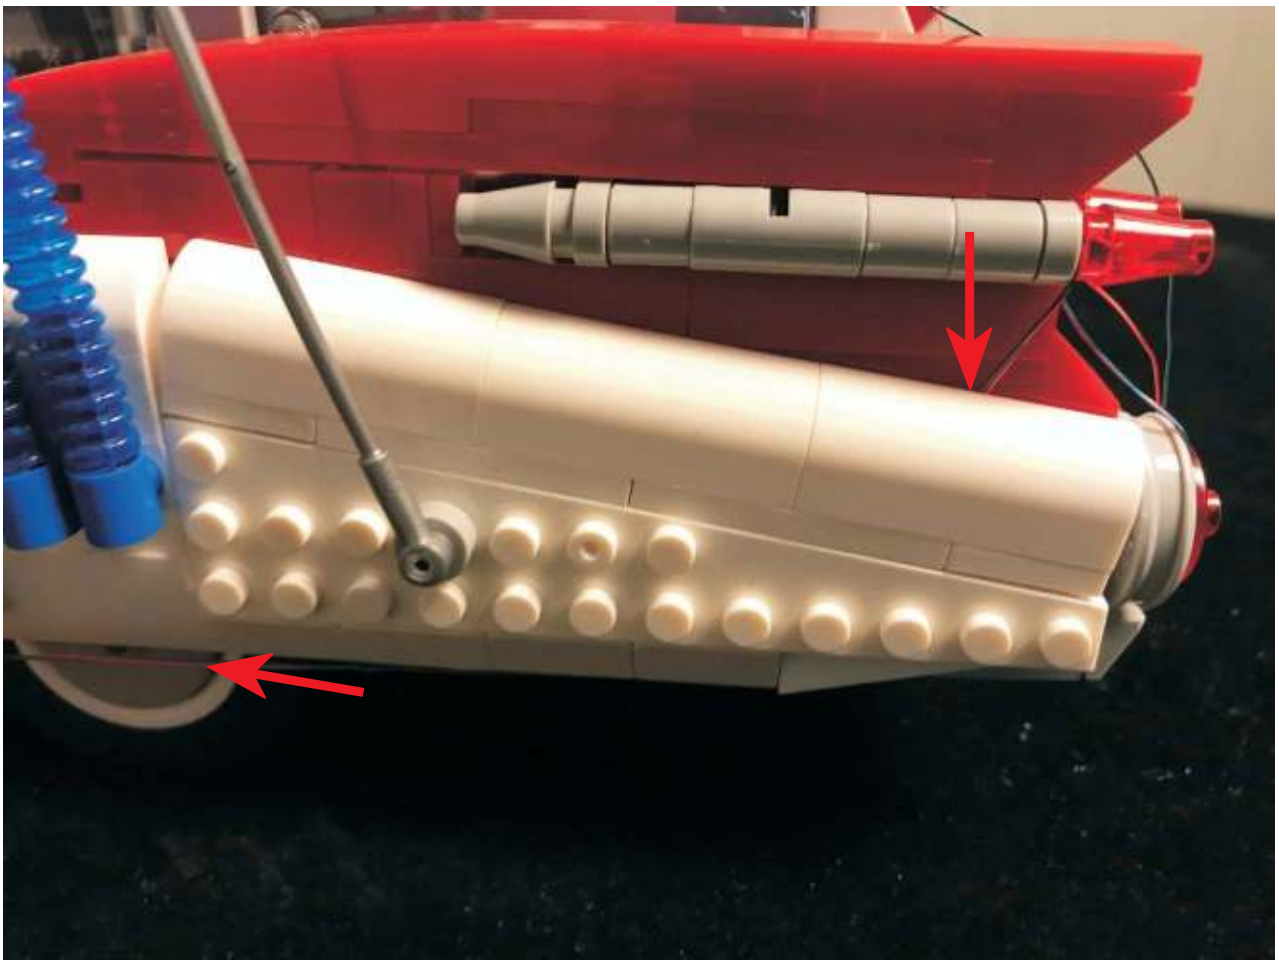

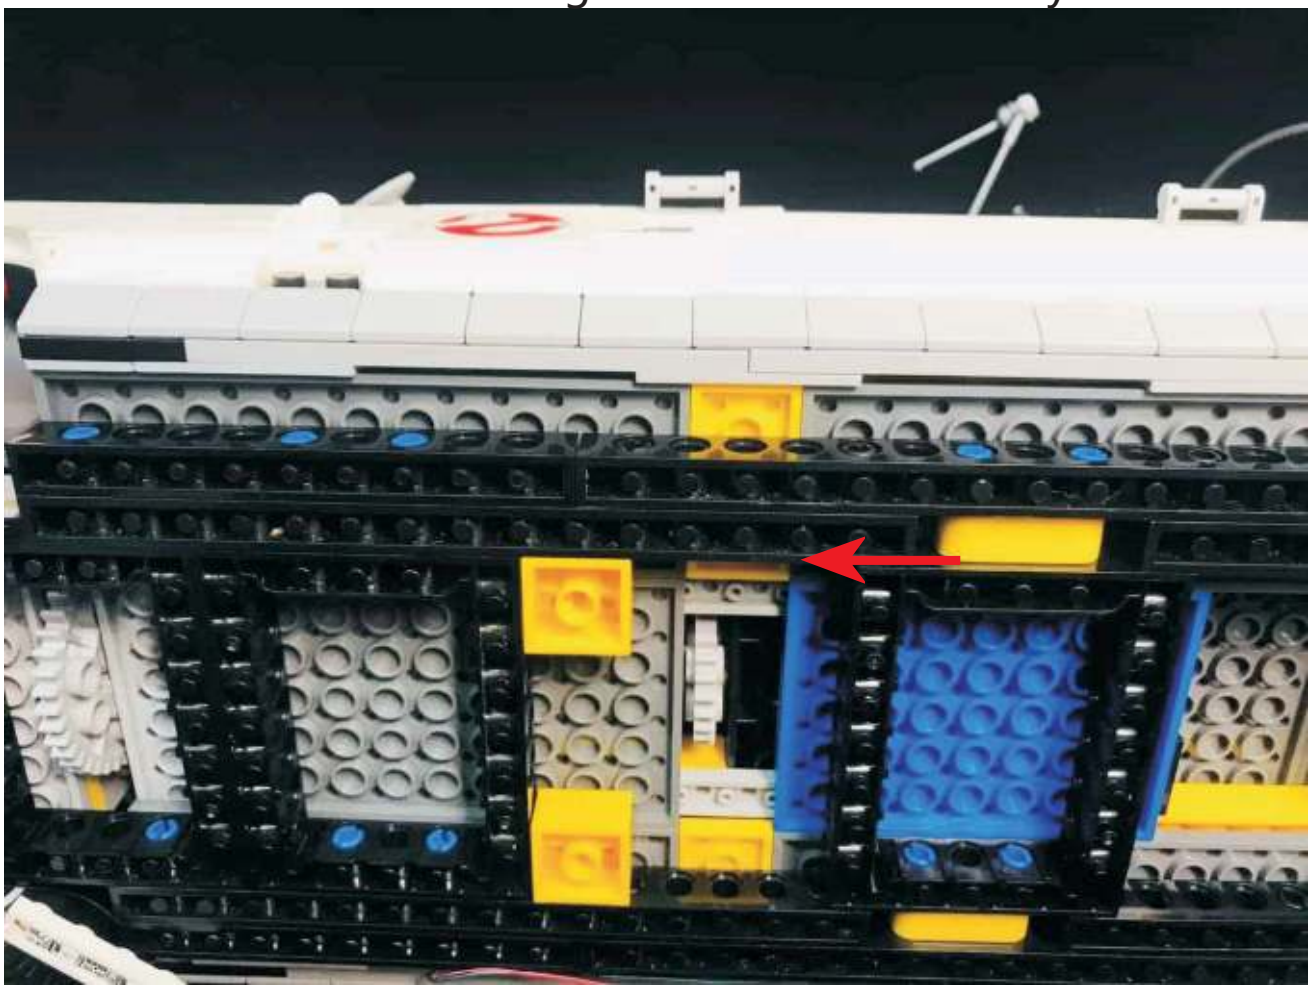

Install the light set in the position indicated by the arrow (between two small round pieces)

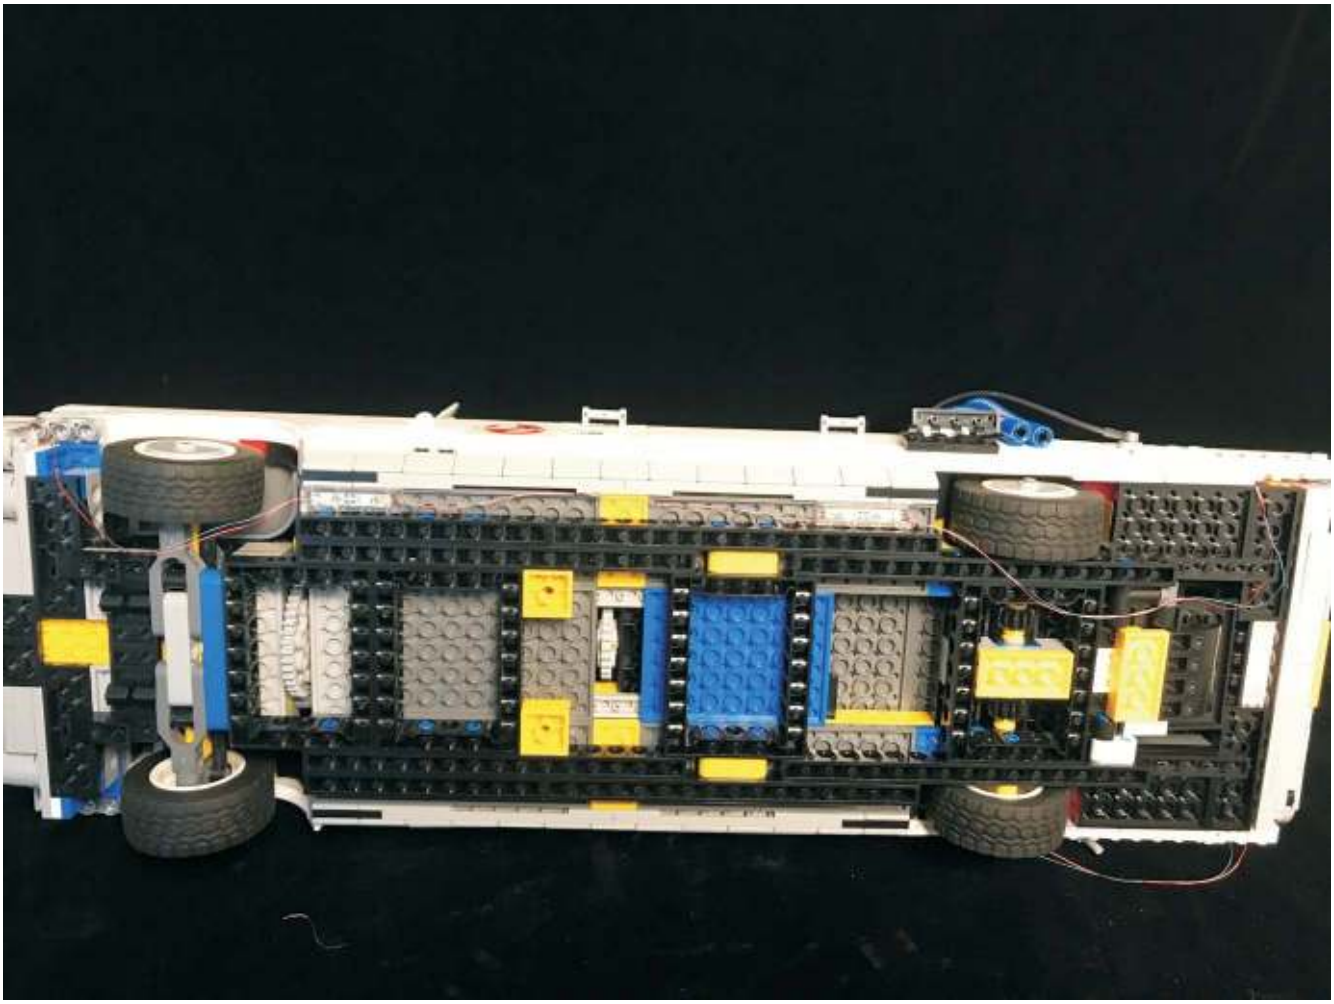

Install the two lighting groups into the building blocks (same method on both sides)Restore the building block position as shown

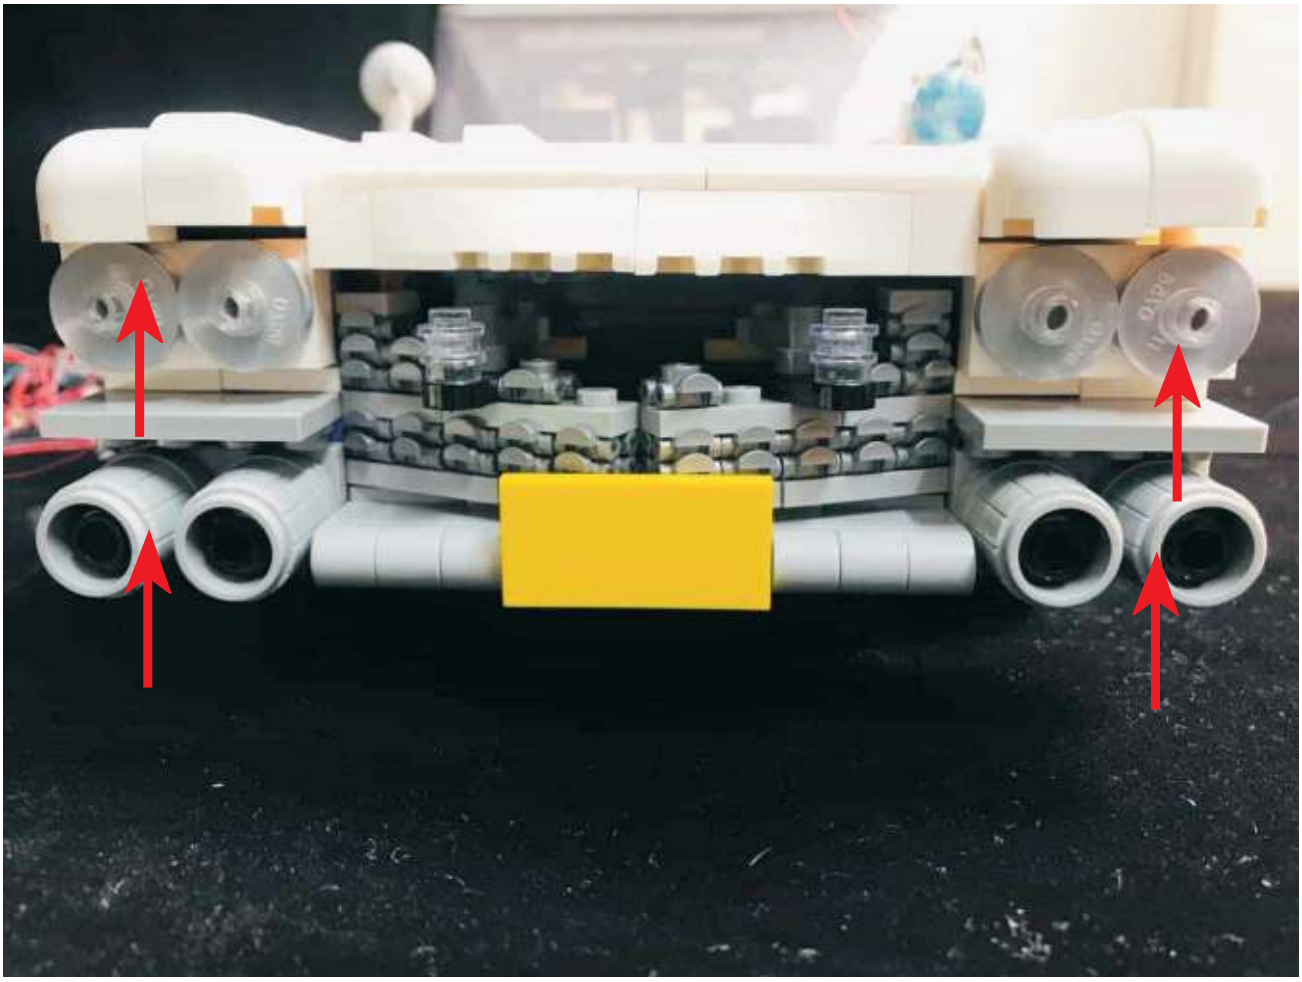

Hide the wire in the building block as indicated by the arrow above

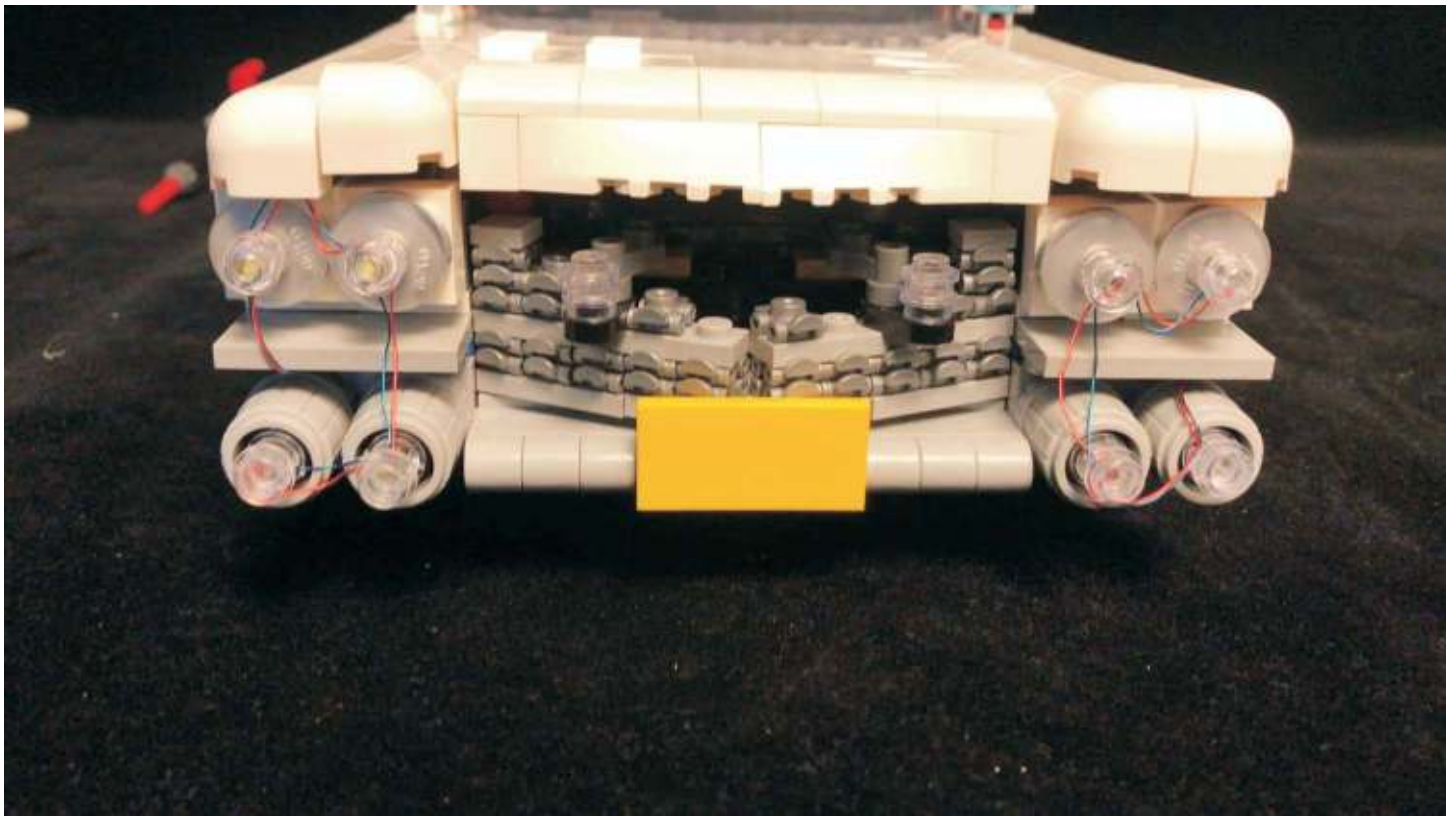

Hide the wire under the car as shown in the arrow and install the lighting set as shown below

Add transparent parts to the position shown in the arrow below and install the light setInside the building blocks

Installation completed as shown(Add one part to it,(2)