

Home Home lighting instructions tutorial

Take out the longest wire and install the lamp set as follows

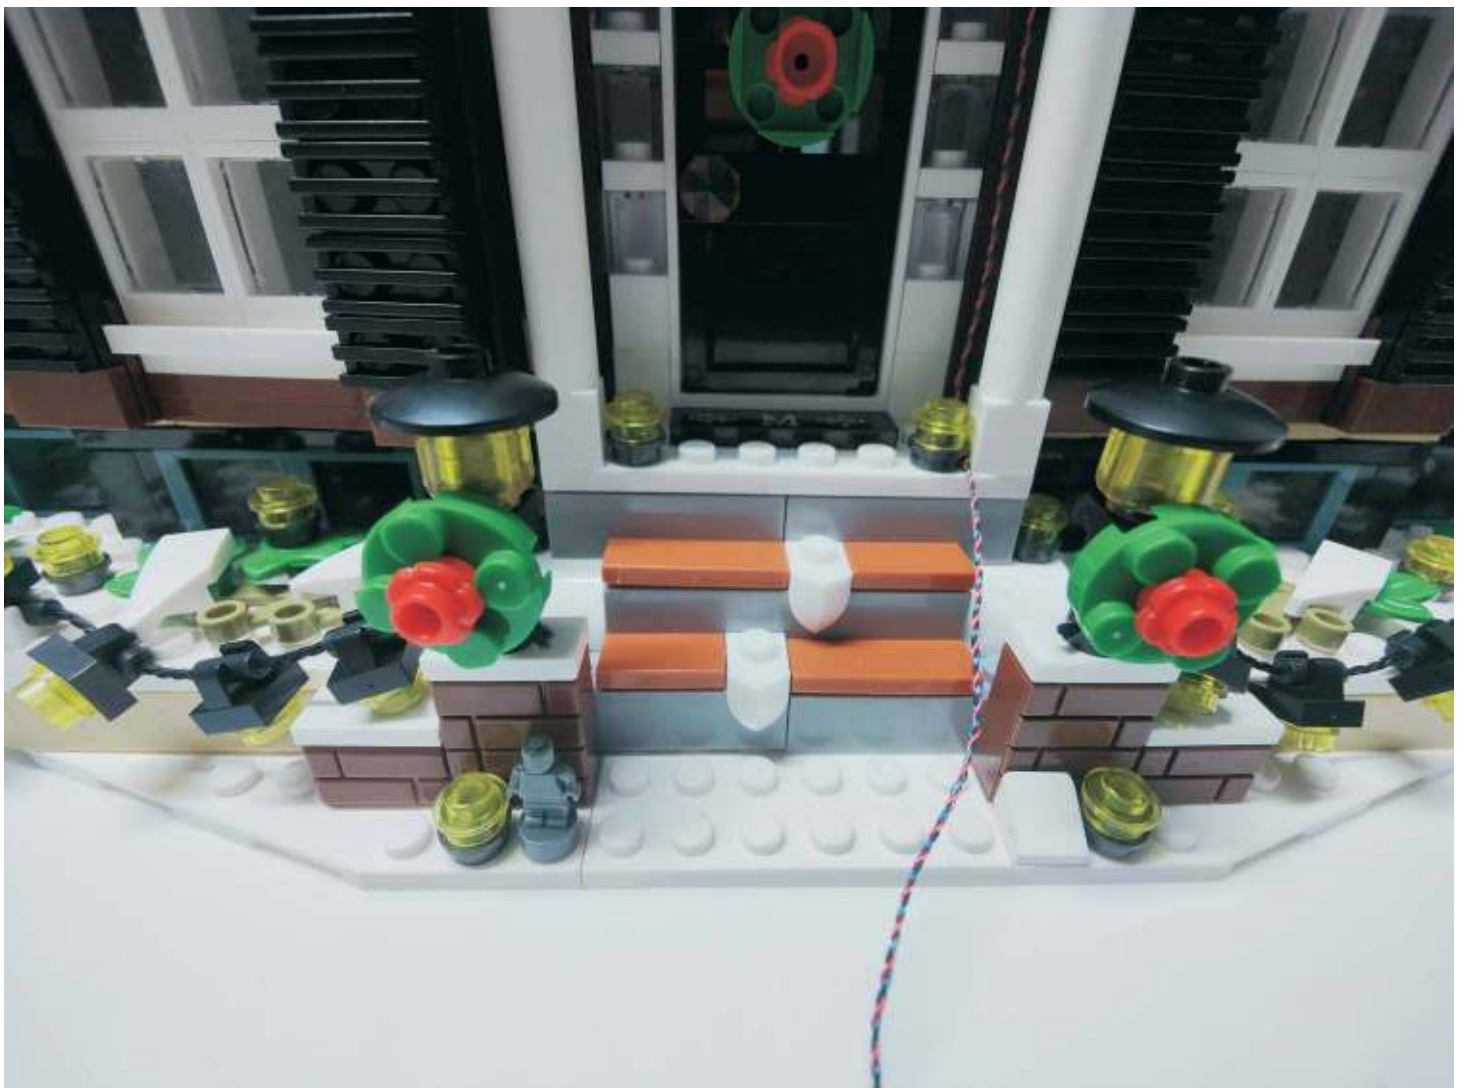

Building blocks are restored as follows

Remove the building blocks below and pass the line through the building blocks

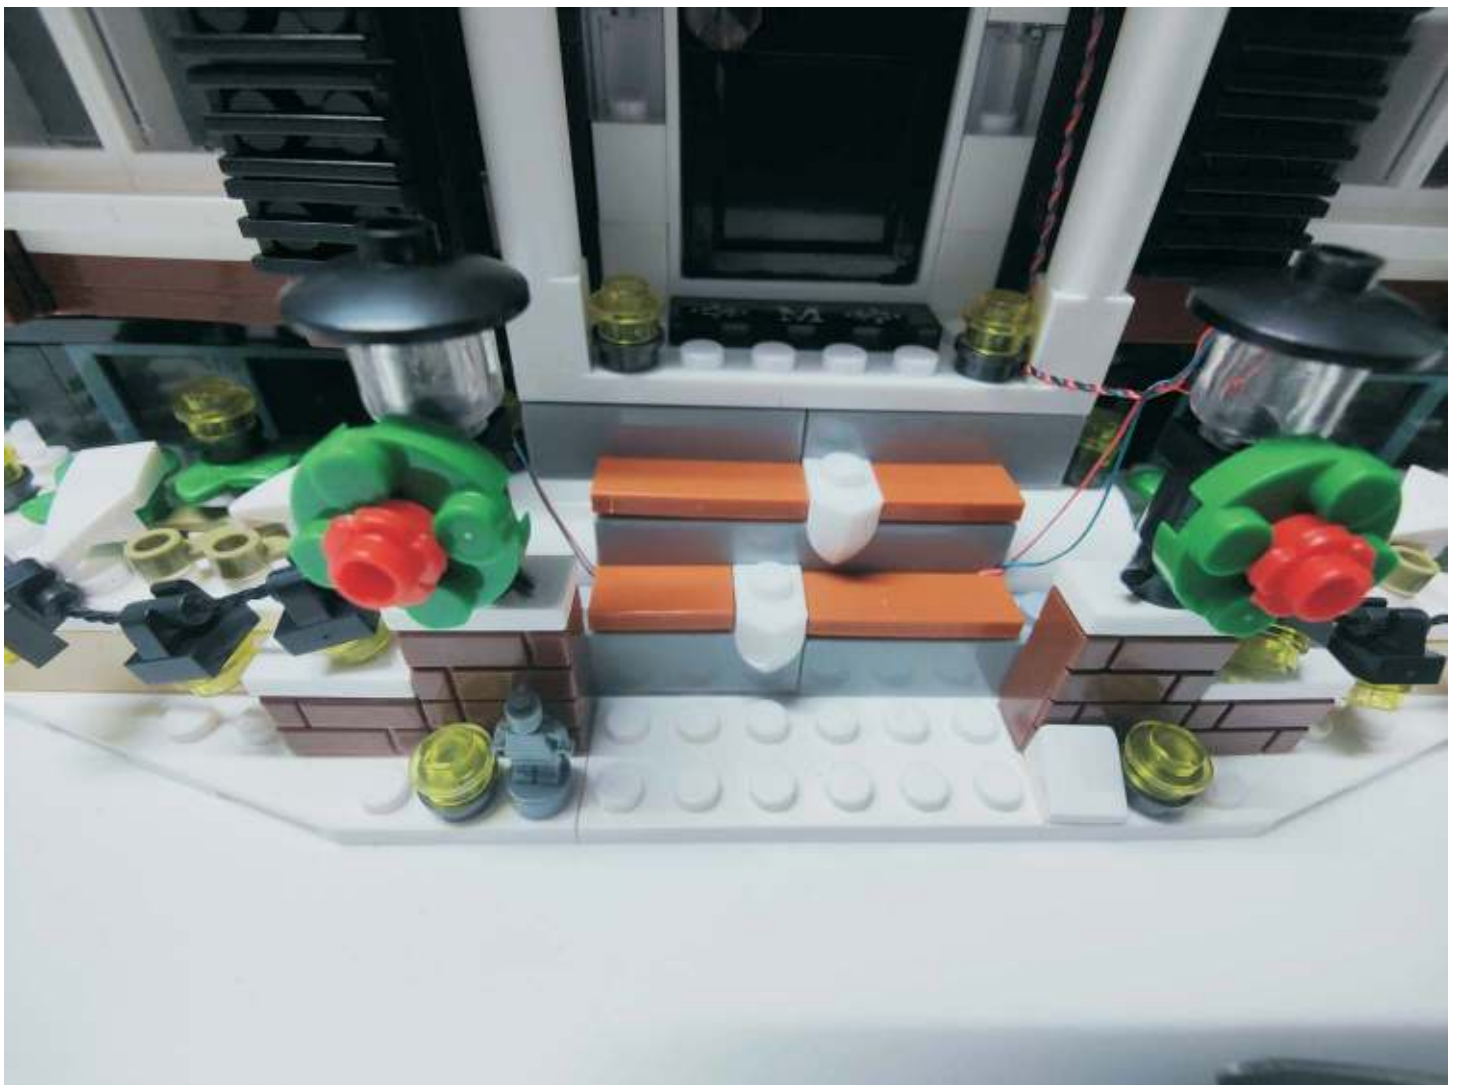

Replace the two blocks with light beads with light particles

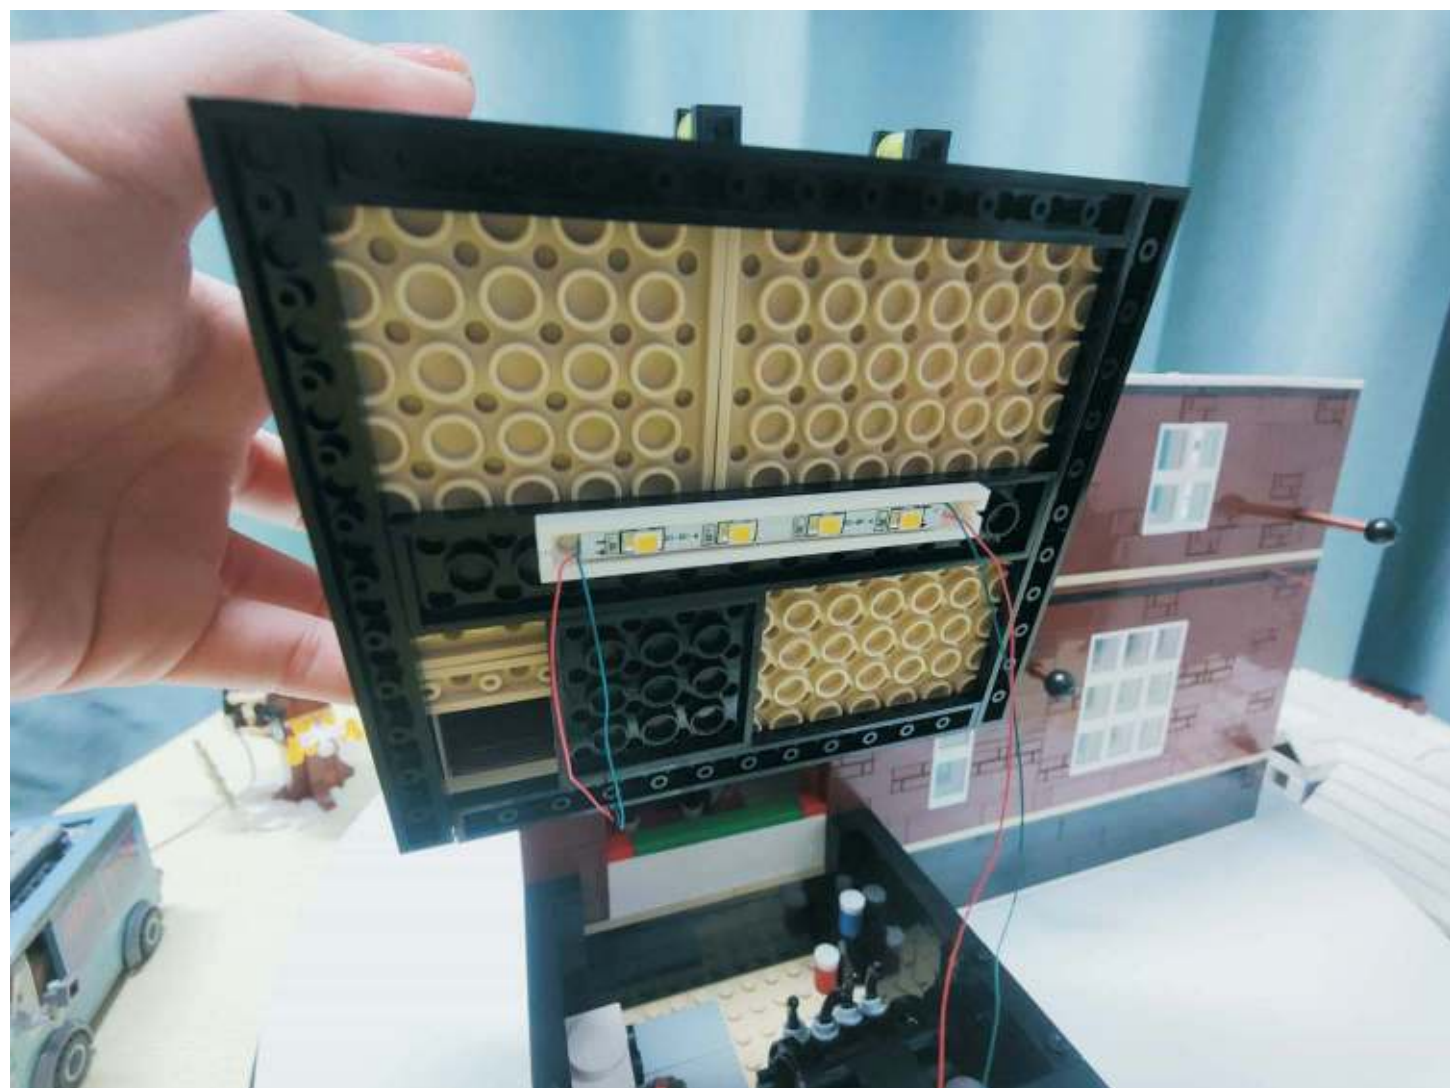

Excess wires are hidden in the building blocks as follows

Remove the second building block and install the lamp set

Install the next one as described below

Install the last two lamp fittings as follows

Take out the second long wire and install the lamp particle group with the following reduction blocks

Pass the light group through the building blocks as follows

Install the light set as follows

