

S Lamborghini Light Instructions

Open the lamp group

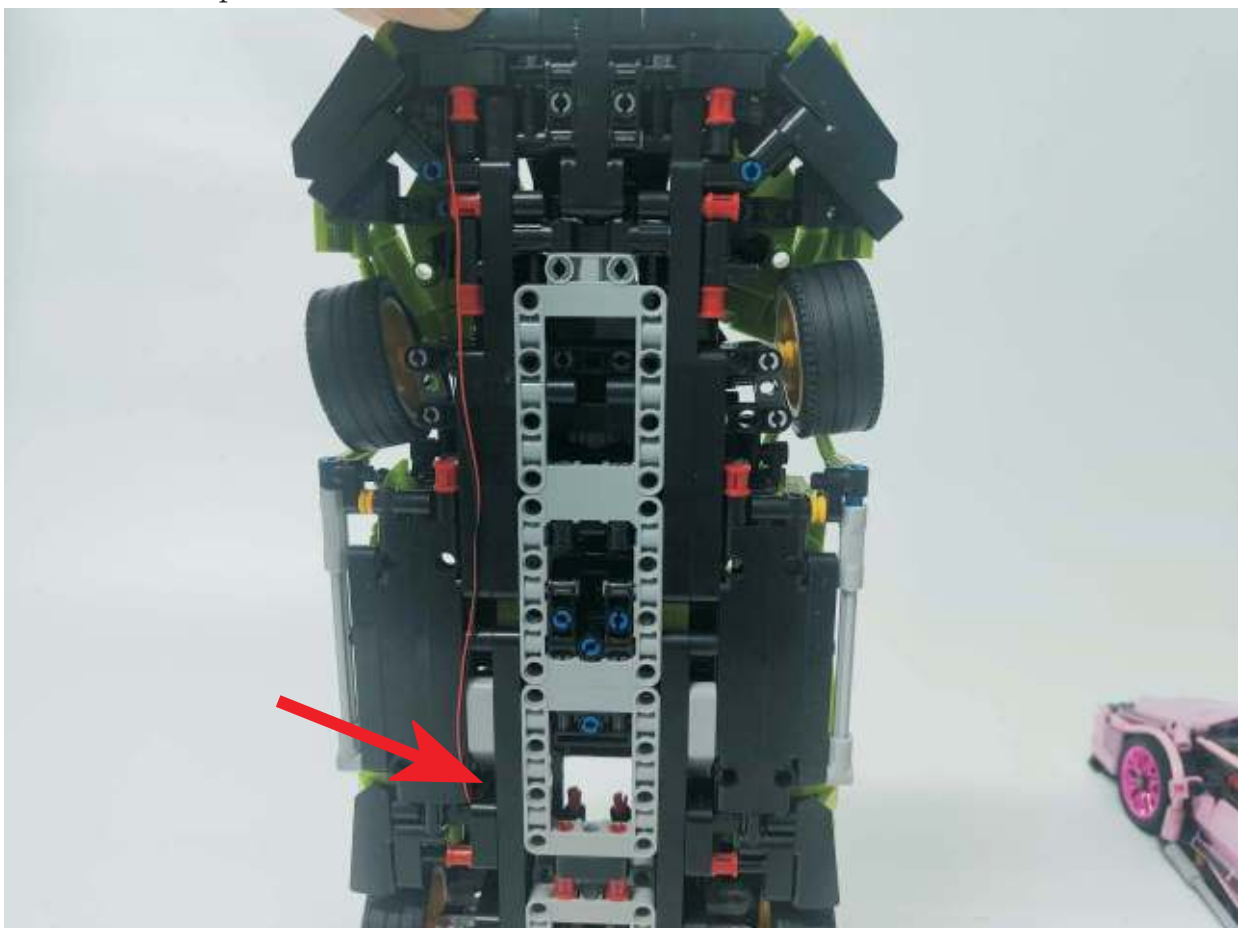

Open the A package. Install the light set as follows

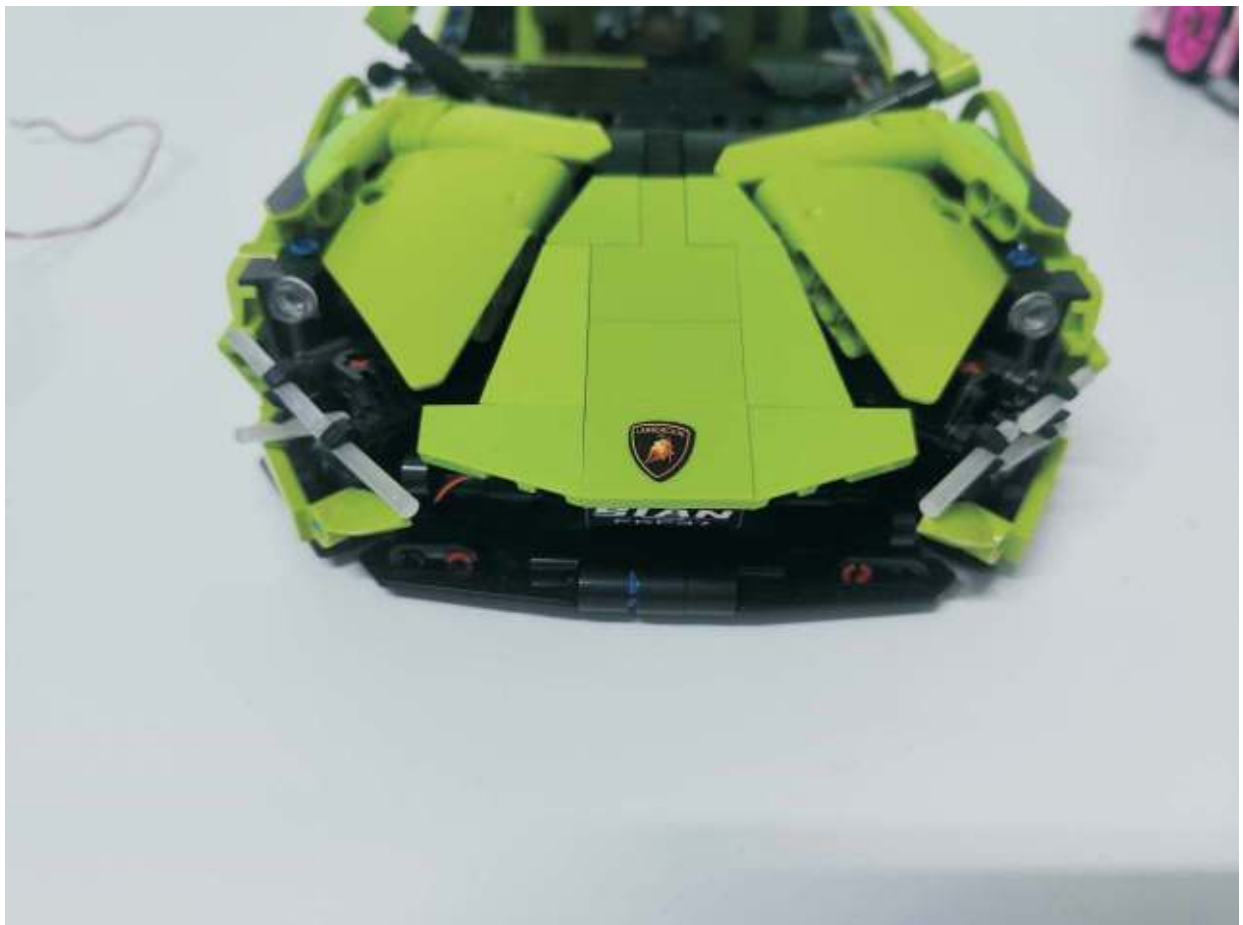

Wear the wire to the bottom and then around the arrow to the top below

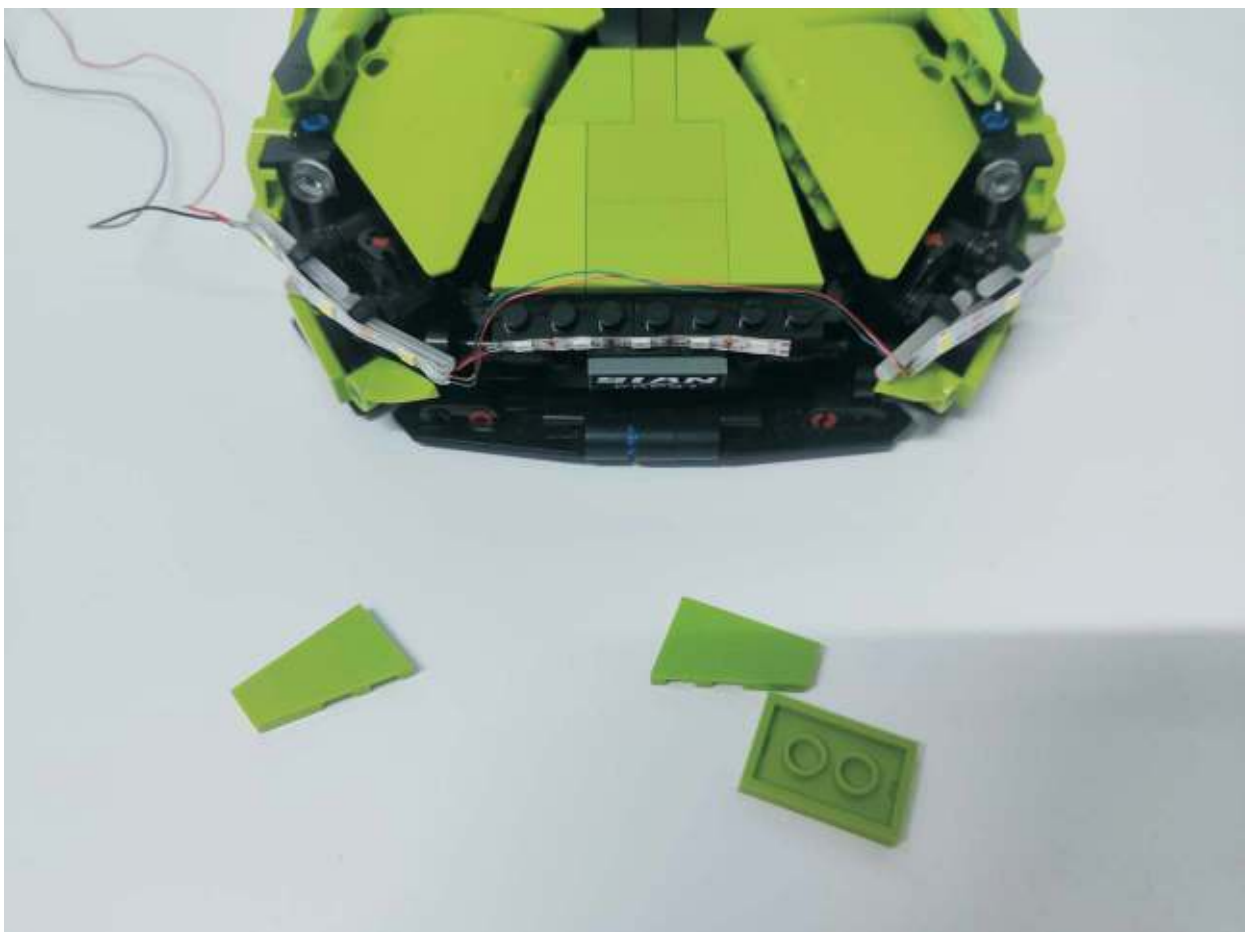

Open the B package and install the light group on the transparency piece as follows

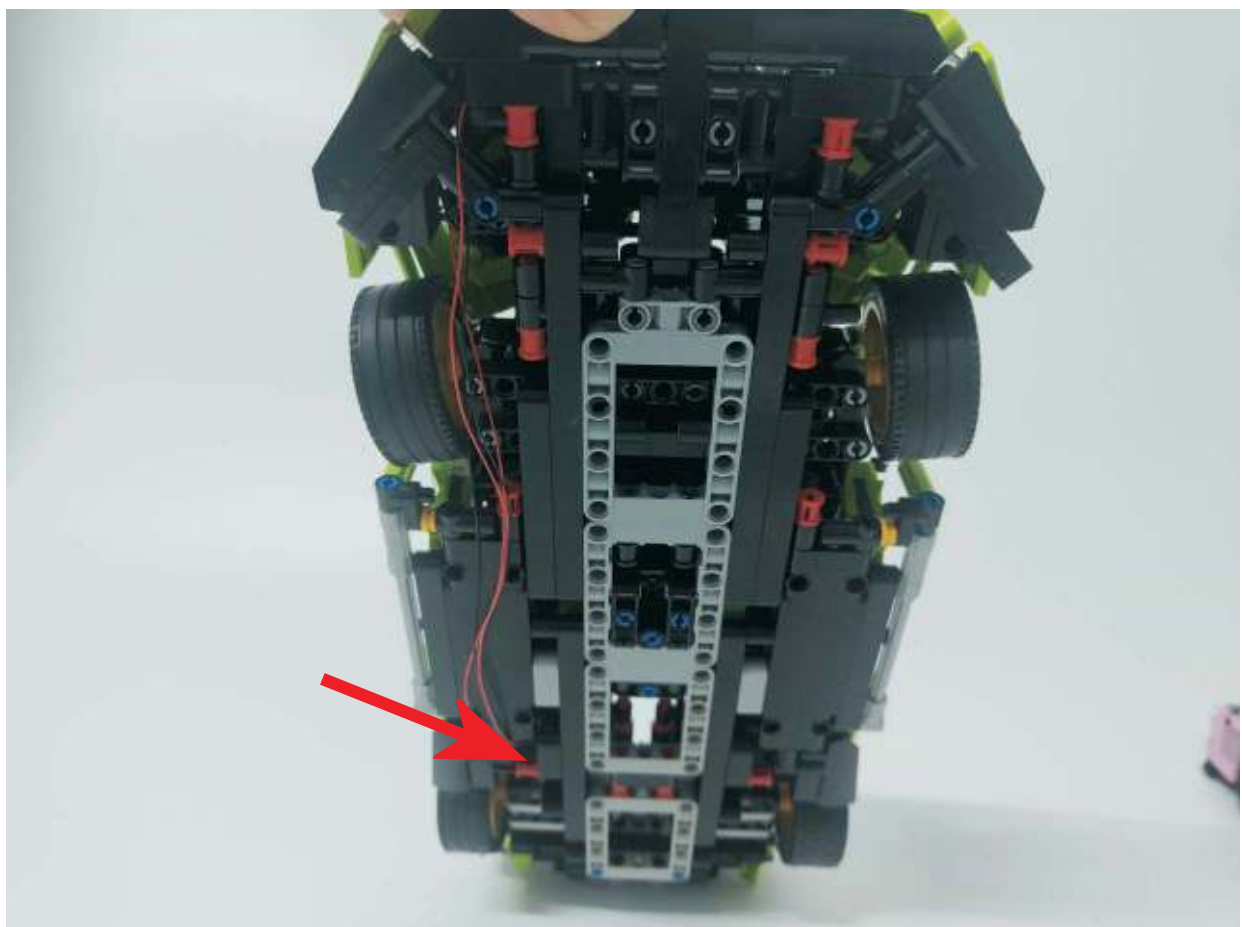

Remove the blocks and hide the wires in the blocks

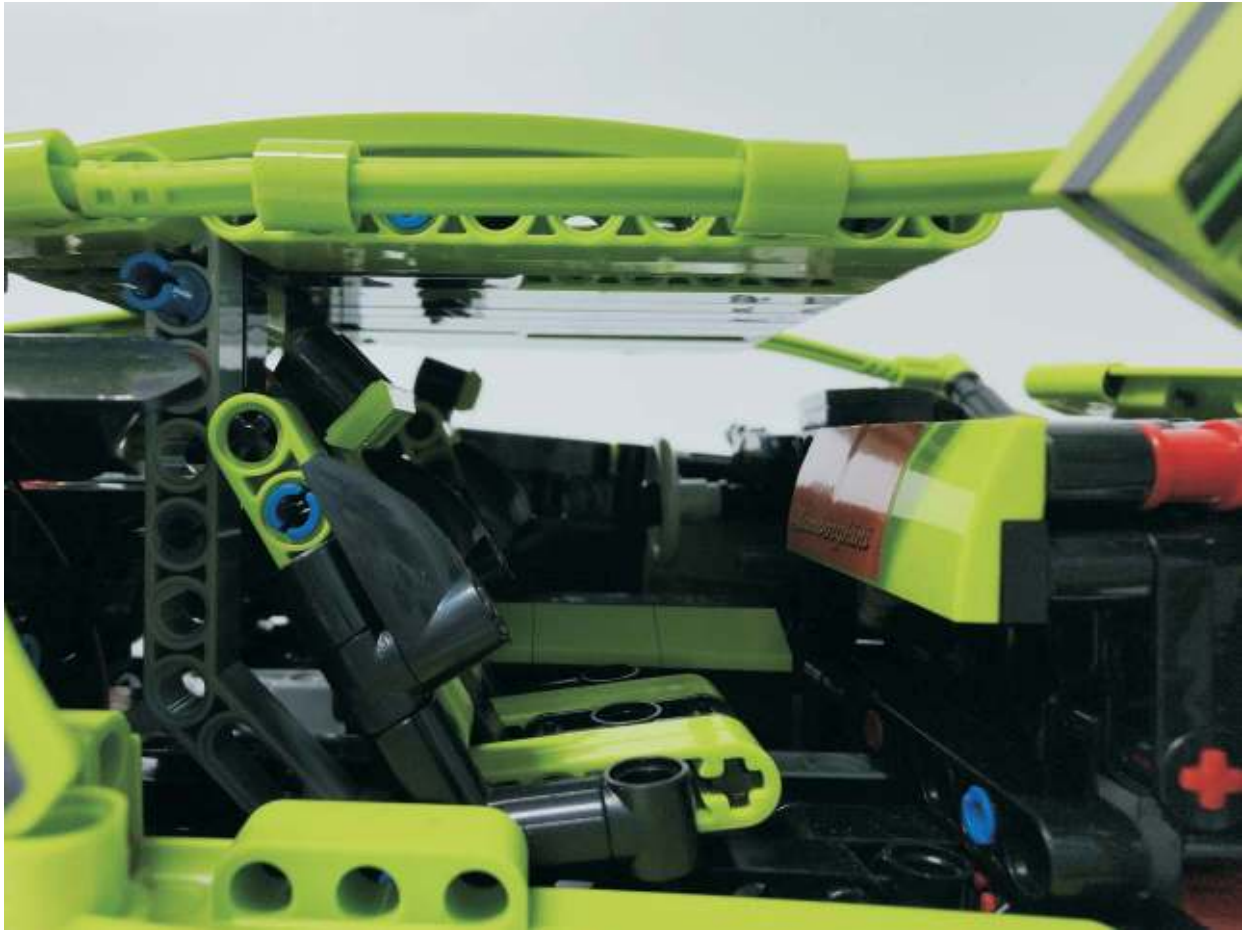

Pass the wire and then through the bottom

Wear the wire extension arrow direction to the top

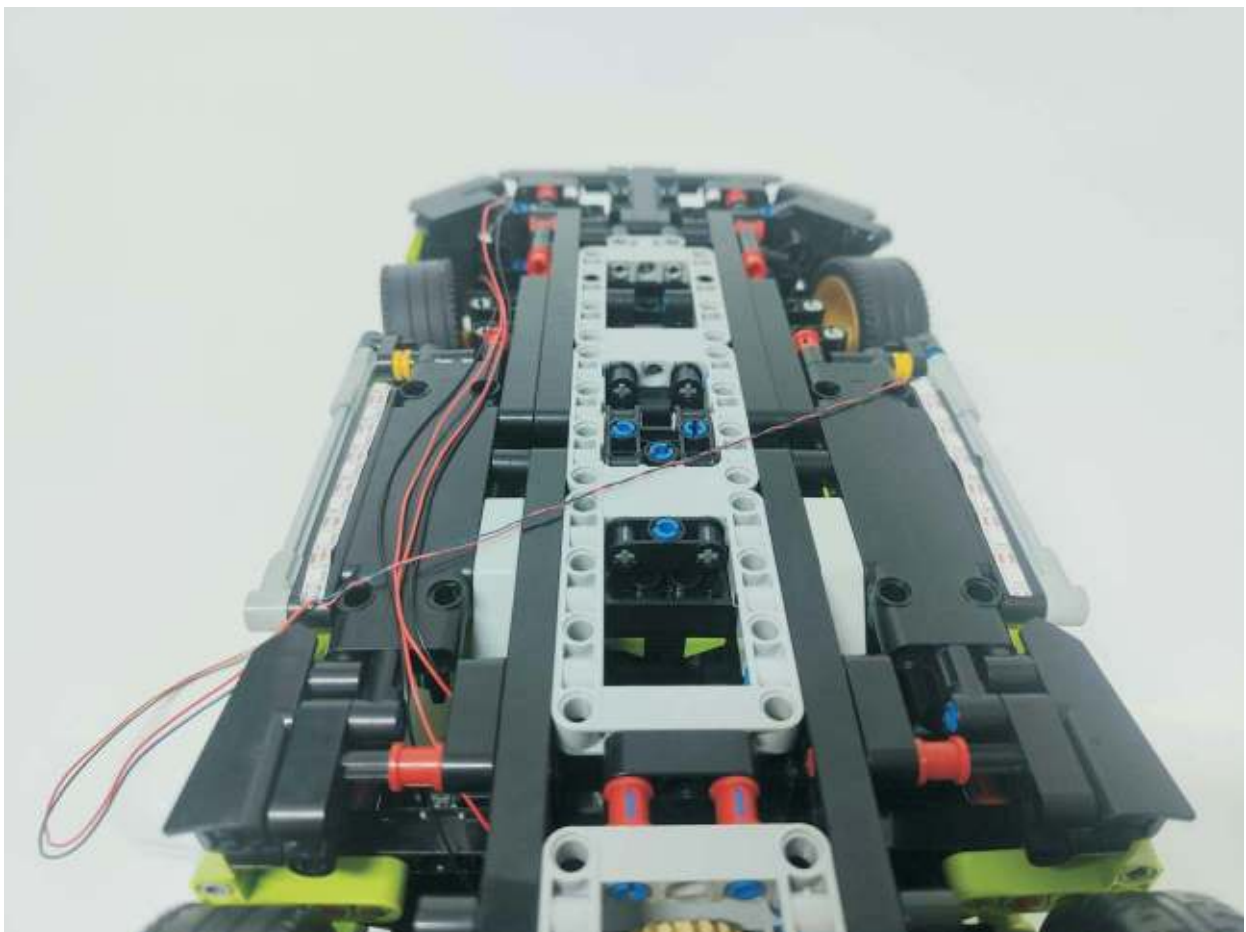

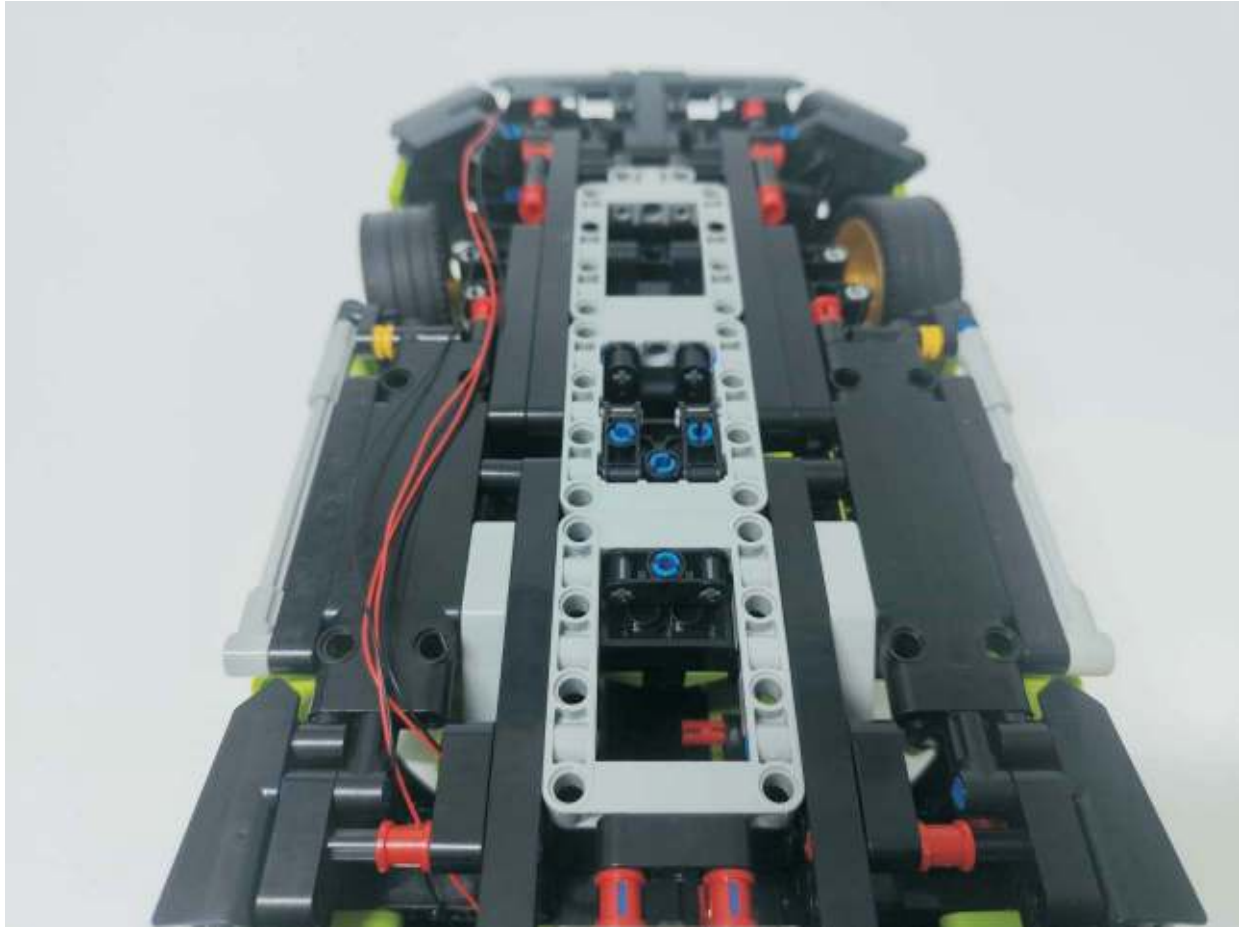

Open the C package and install the light group as follows

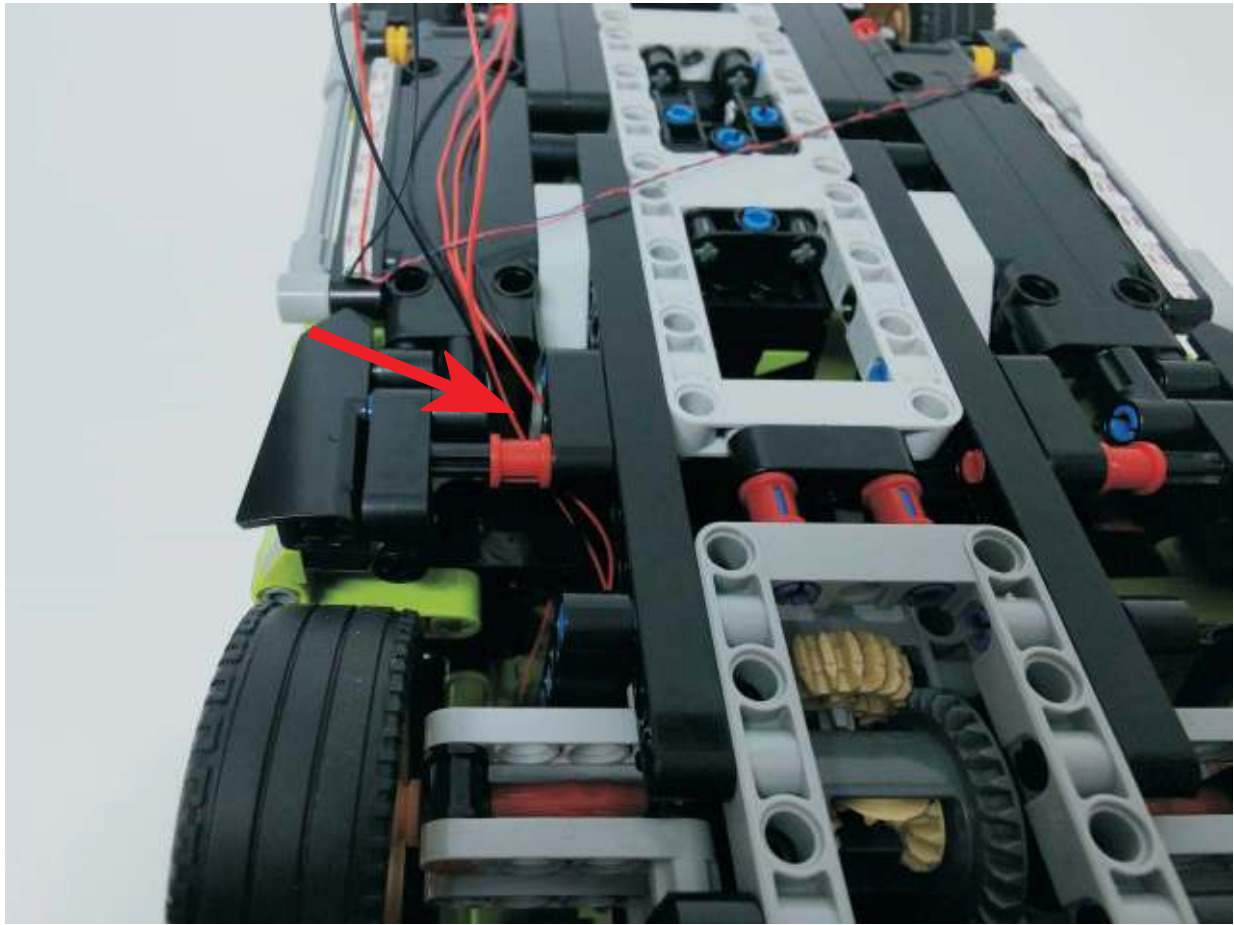

Lead extension seat center through

Open the D package and install the light group as follows

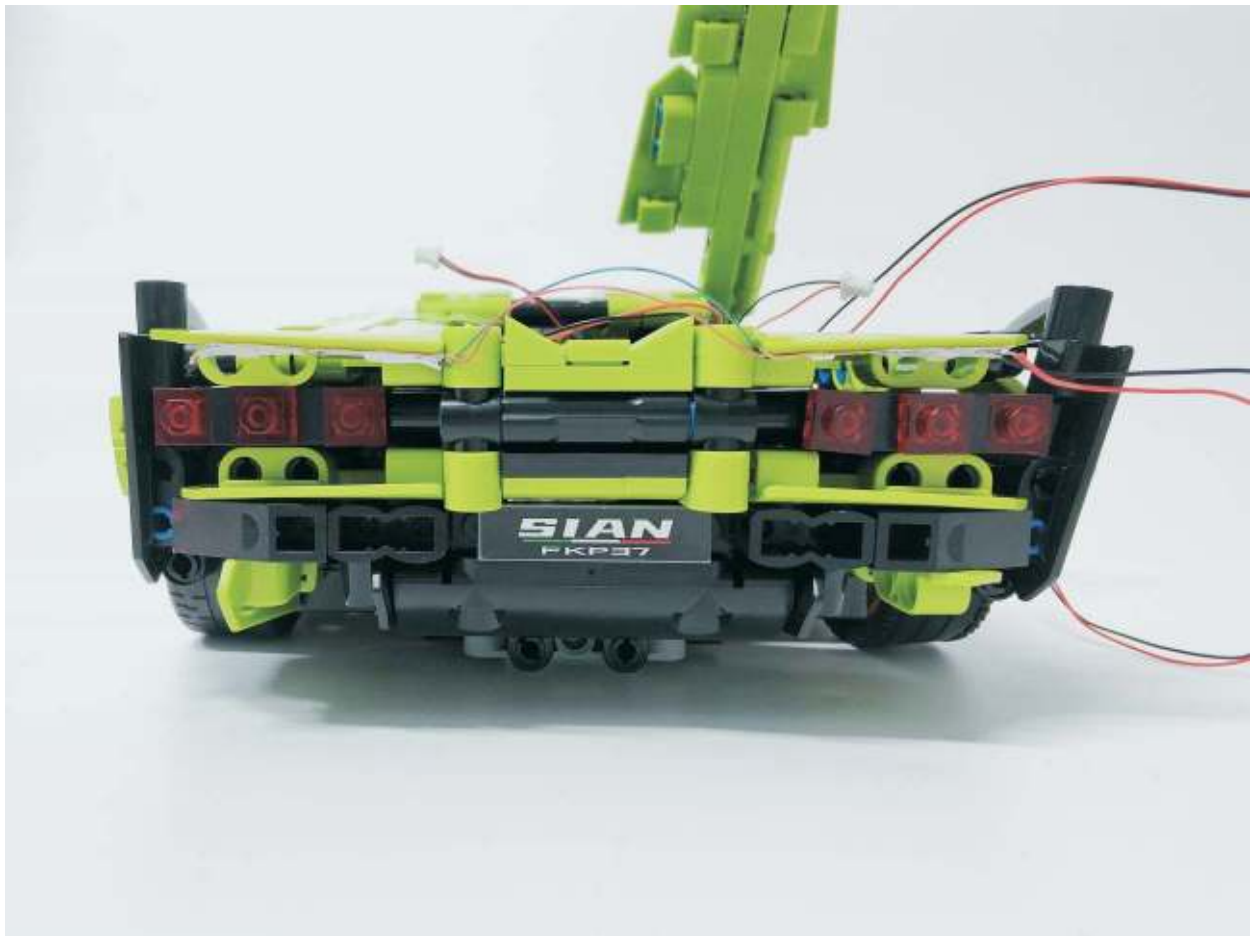

Wear the wire into the arrow position

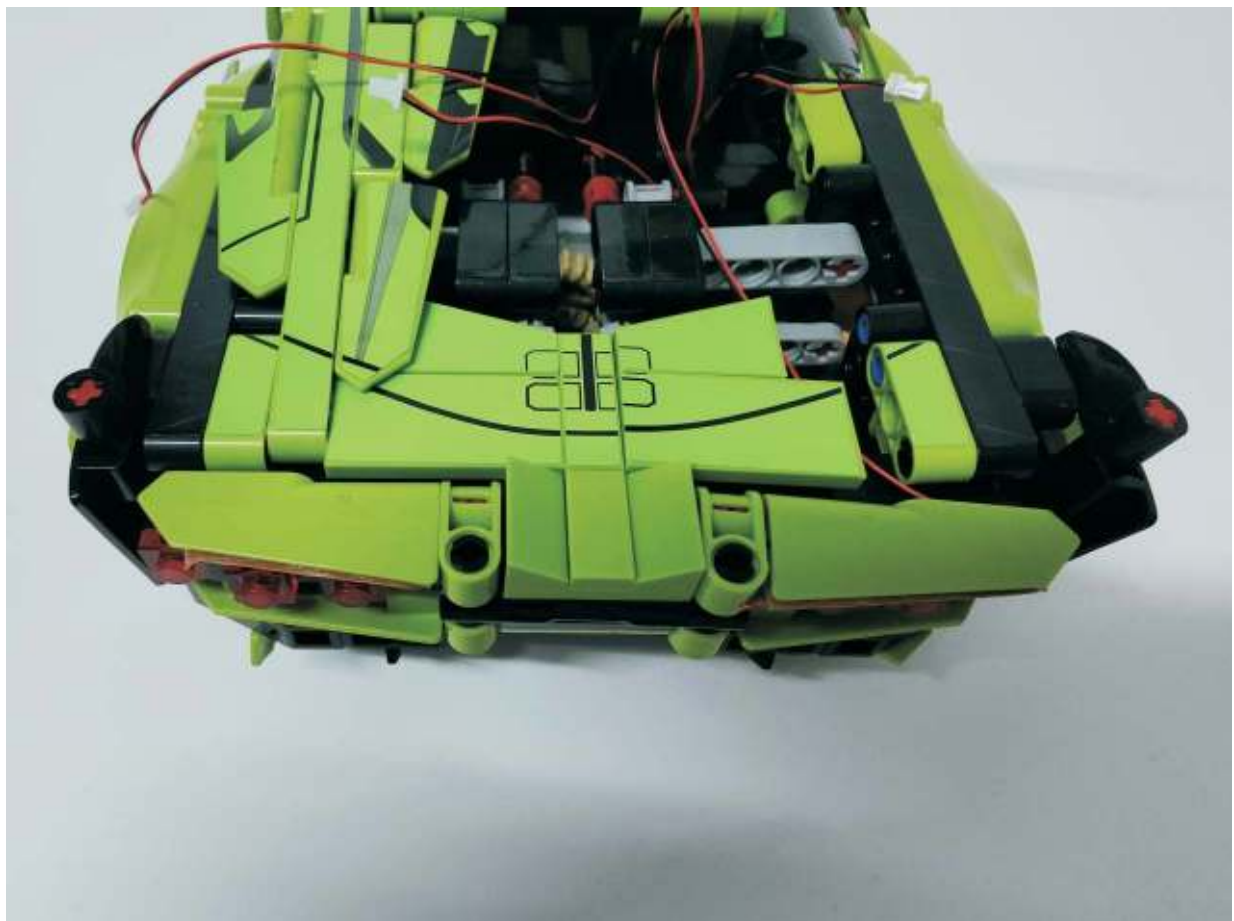

Turn on the E package and install the light group on the red blocks as follows

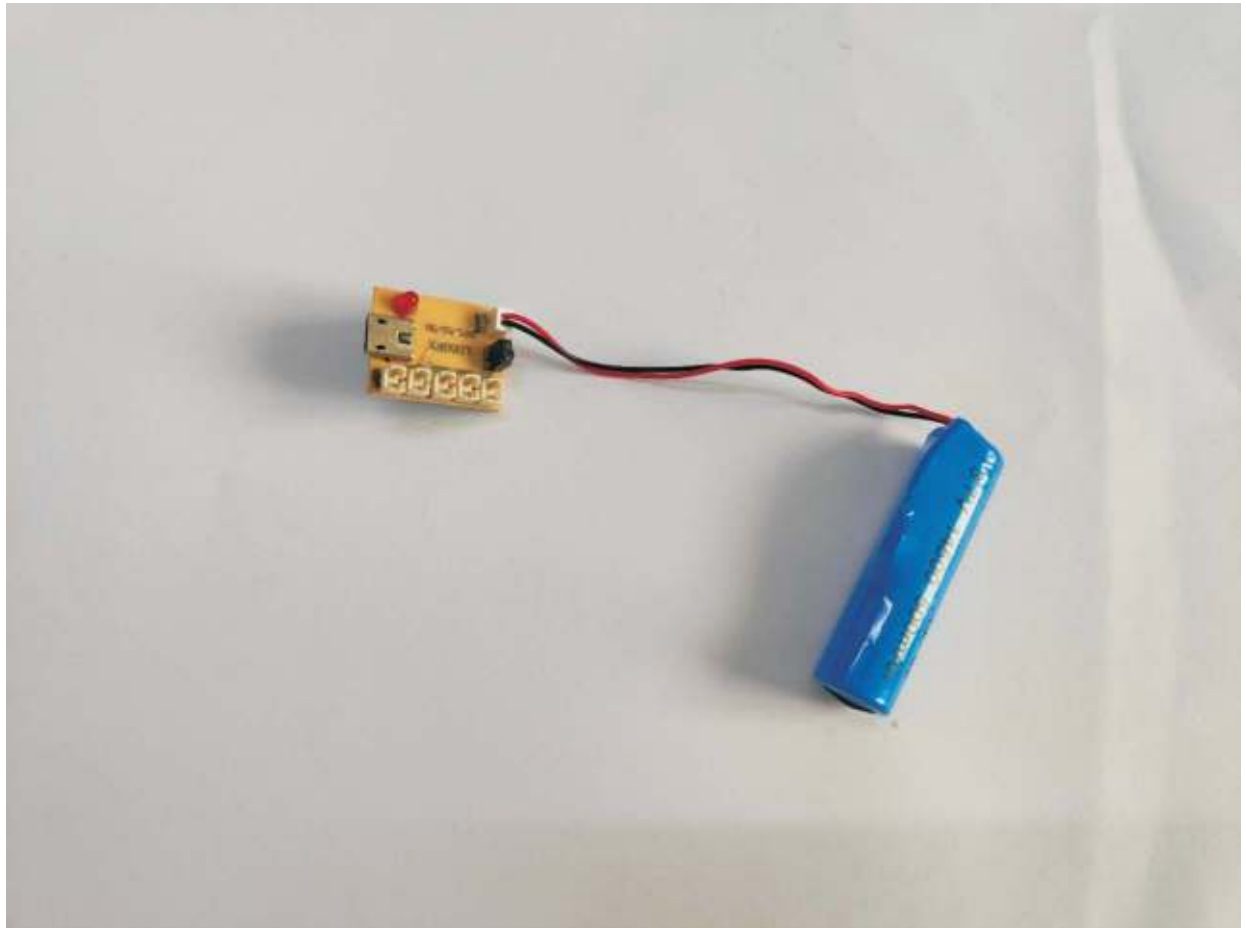

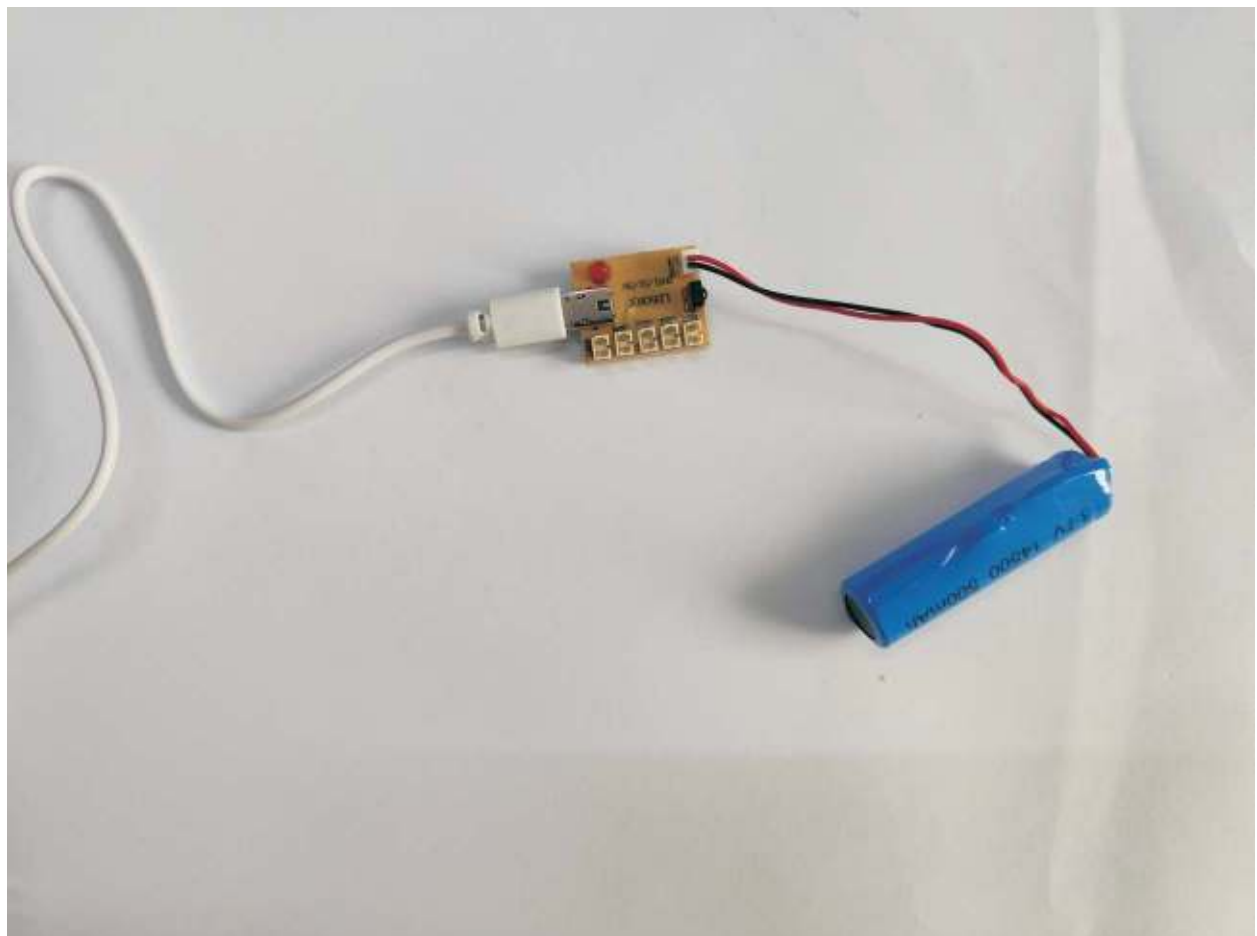

Pass the wire through the blocks as follows

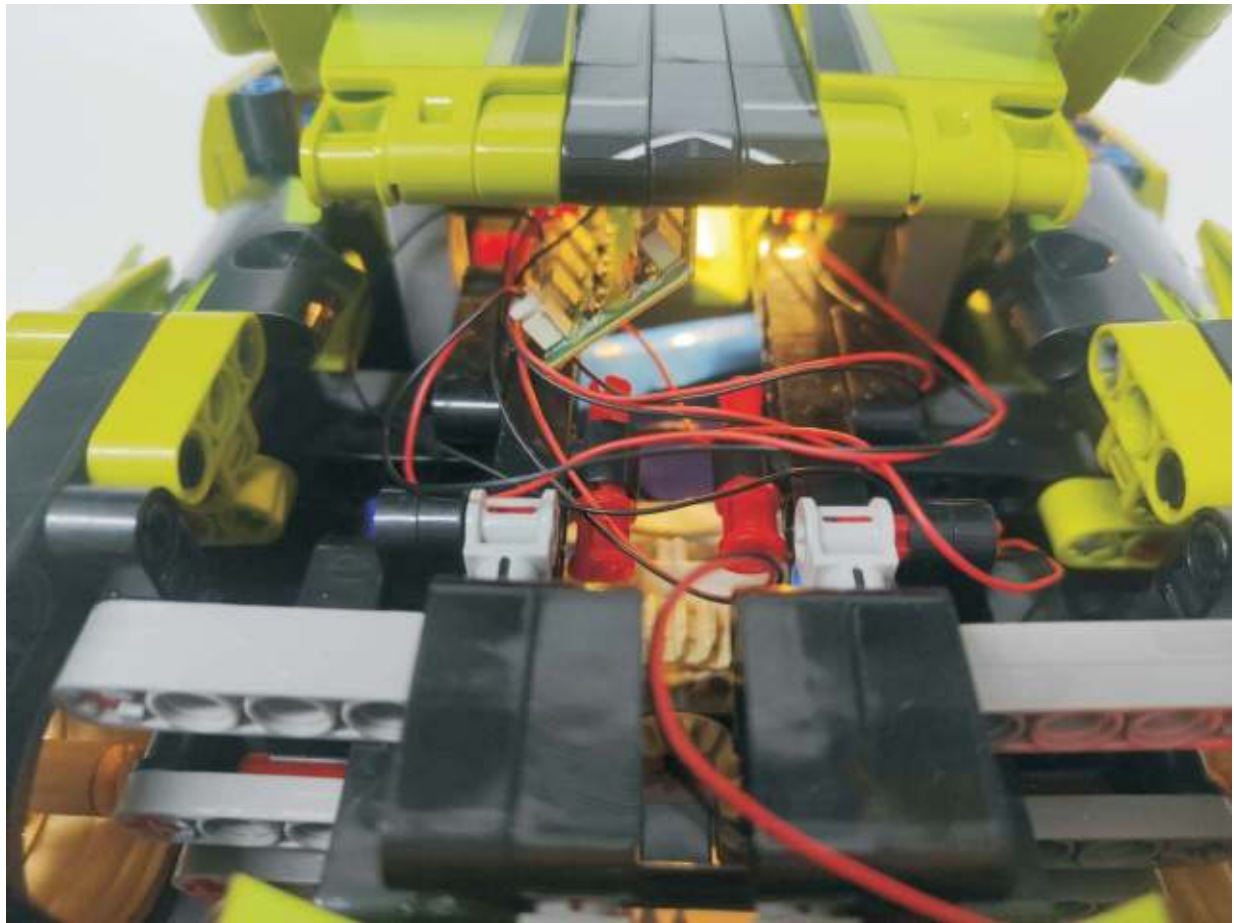

Connect the battery and the connecting board

It can also be charged for use

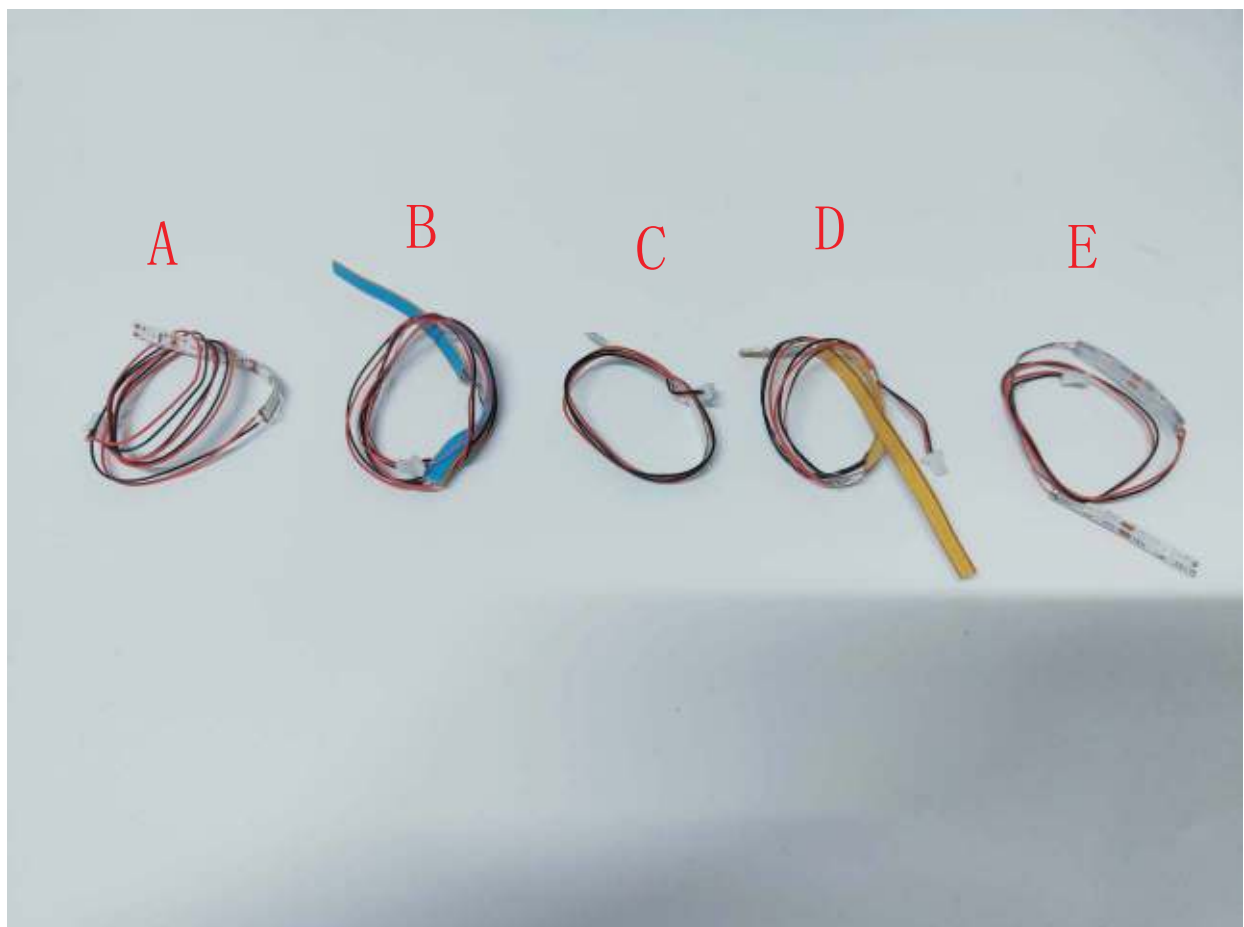

Put the battery and the connecting board inside the car

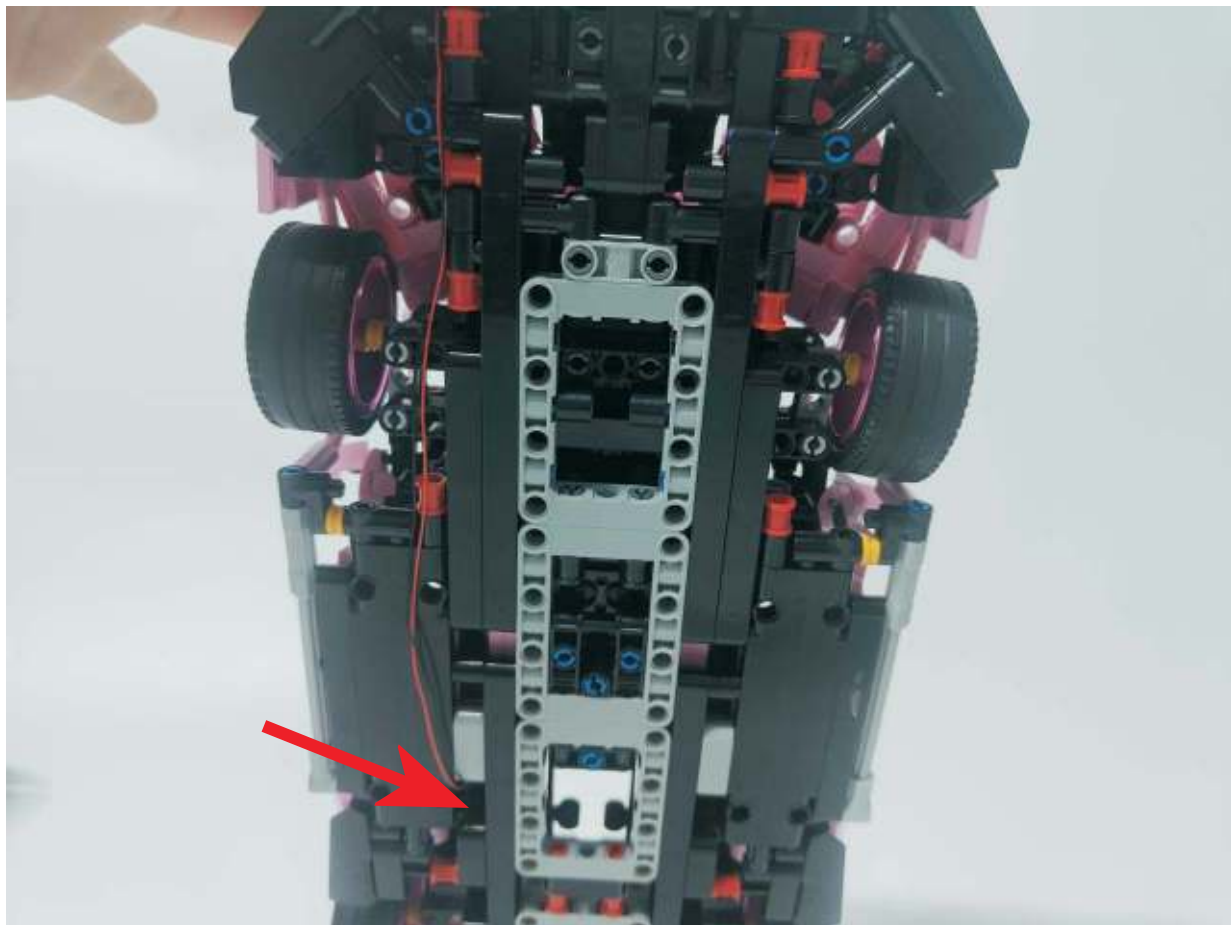

Open the lamp group

Open the A package and install the light group as follows

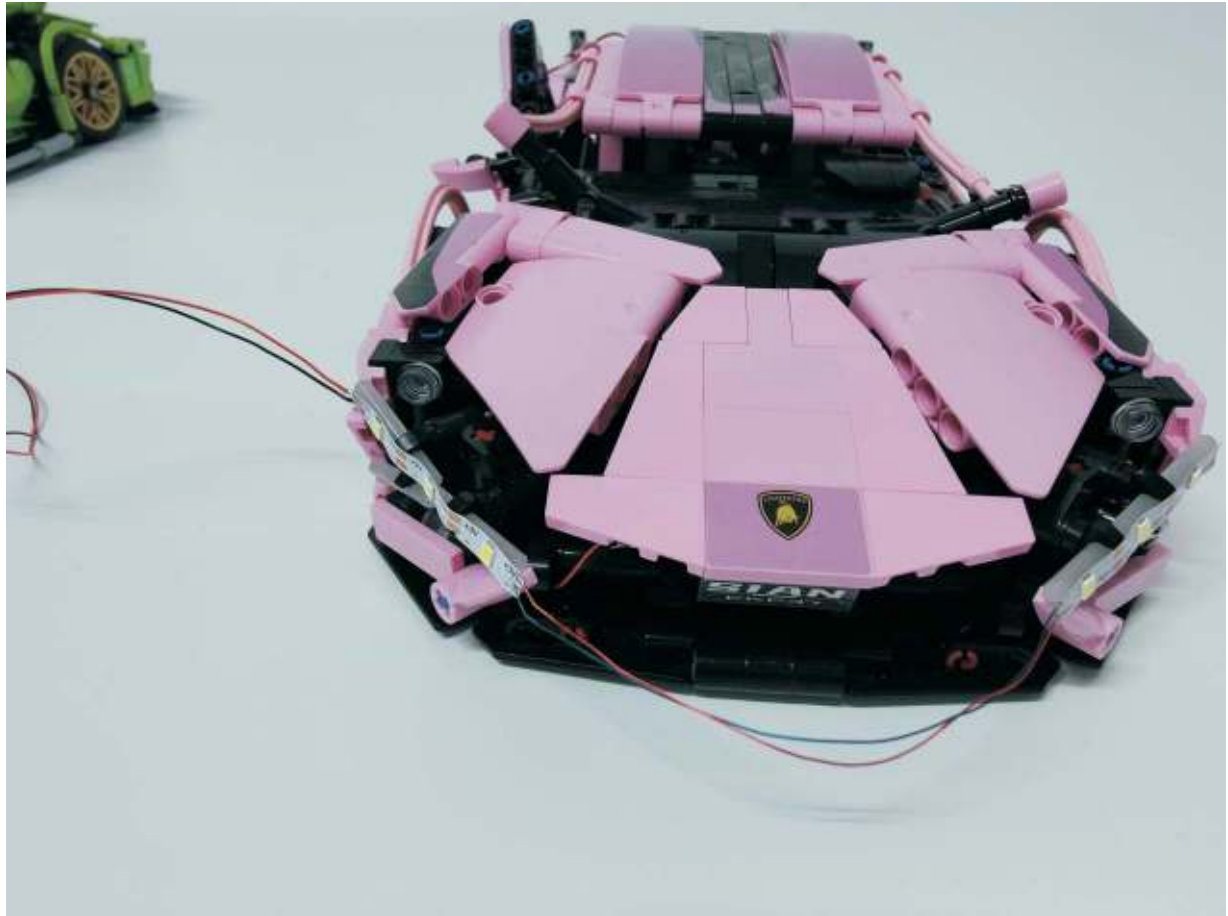

Wear the wire through to the arrow position to the top

Open the B package and install the light group on the transparency piece as follows

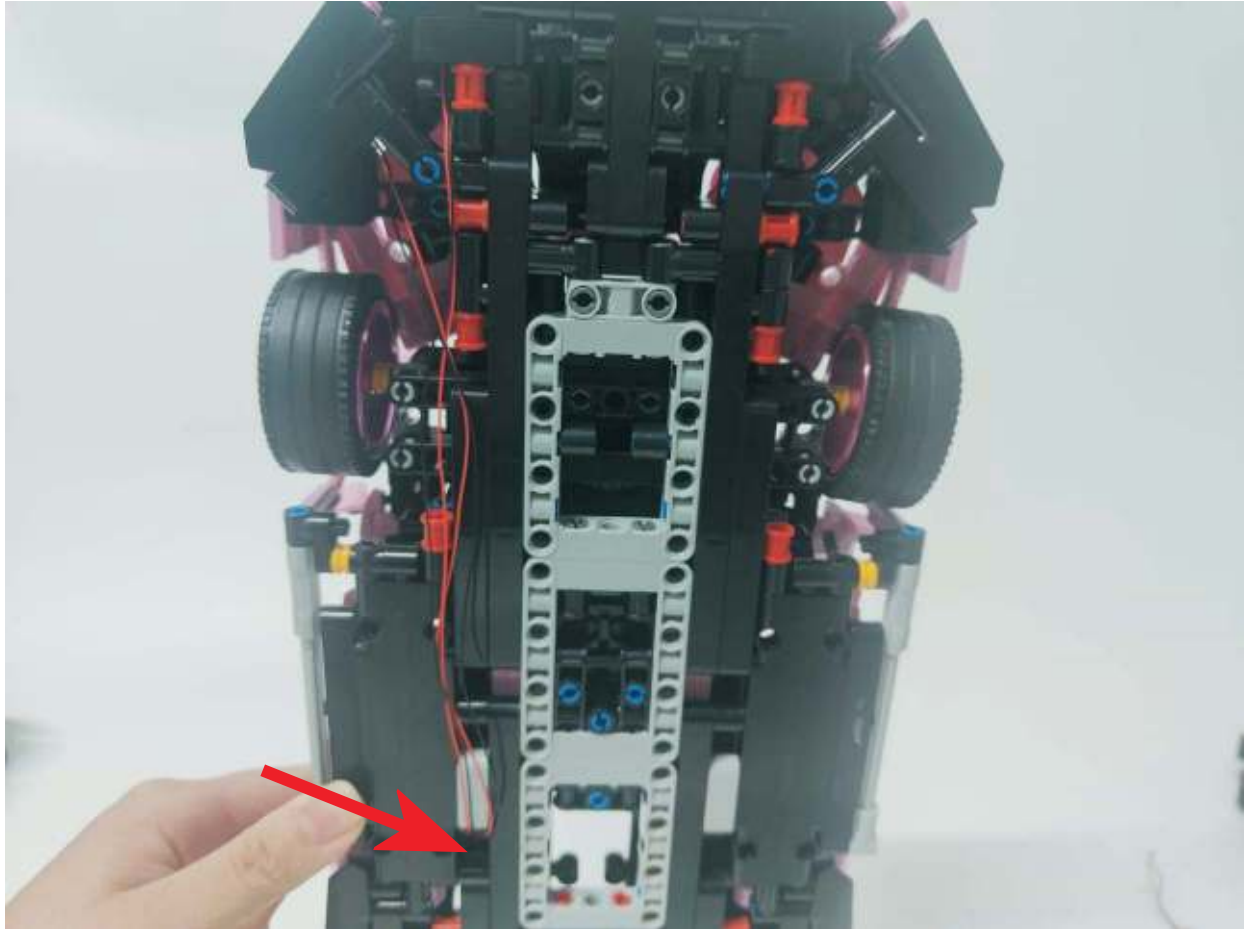

Hidden the wire in the building blocks

Pass the wire through the bottom and then into the arrow

Open the C package and install the light group as follows

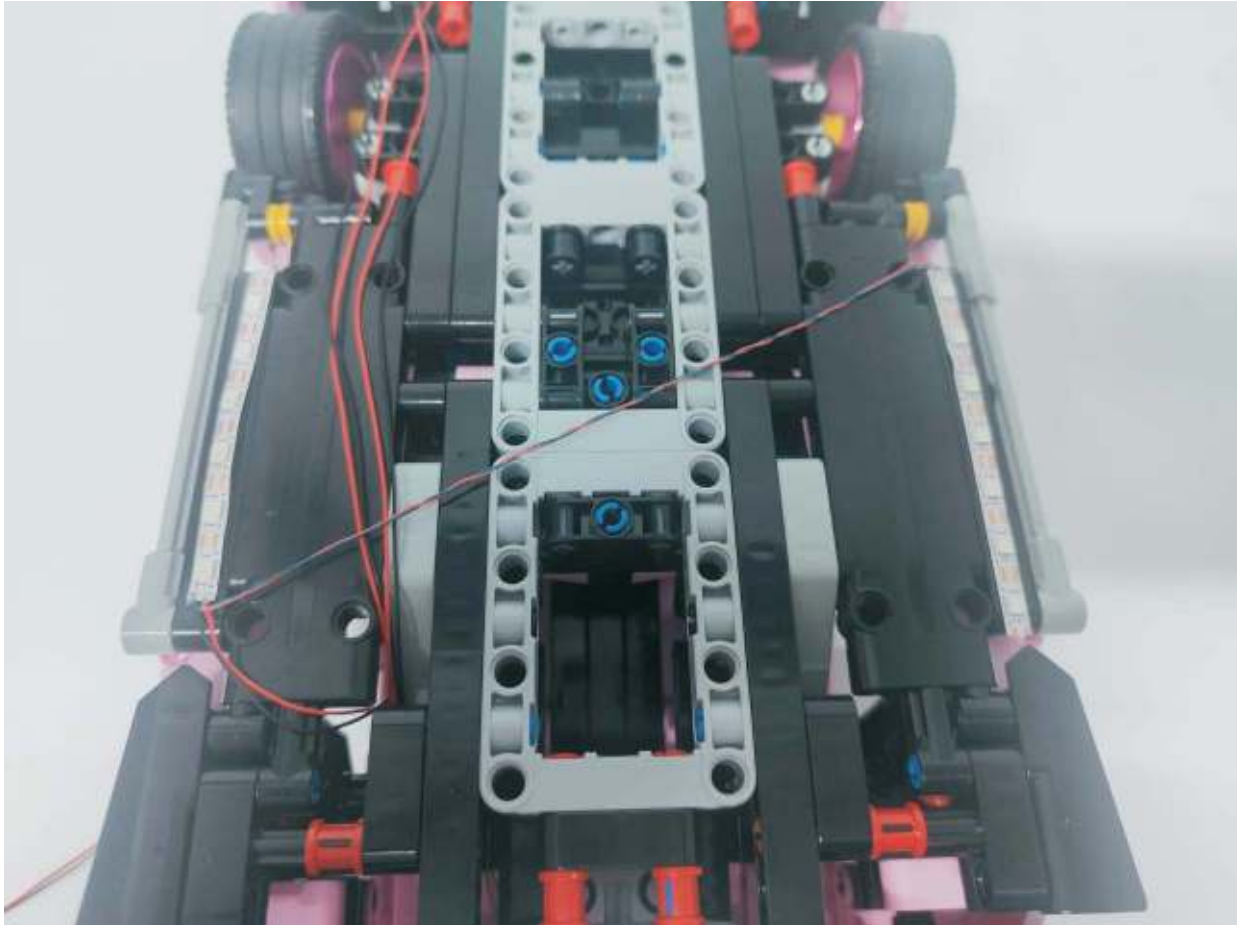

Pass the wire through the middle of the seat

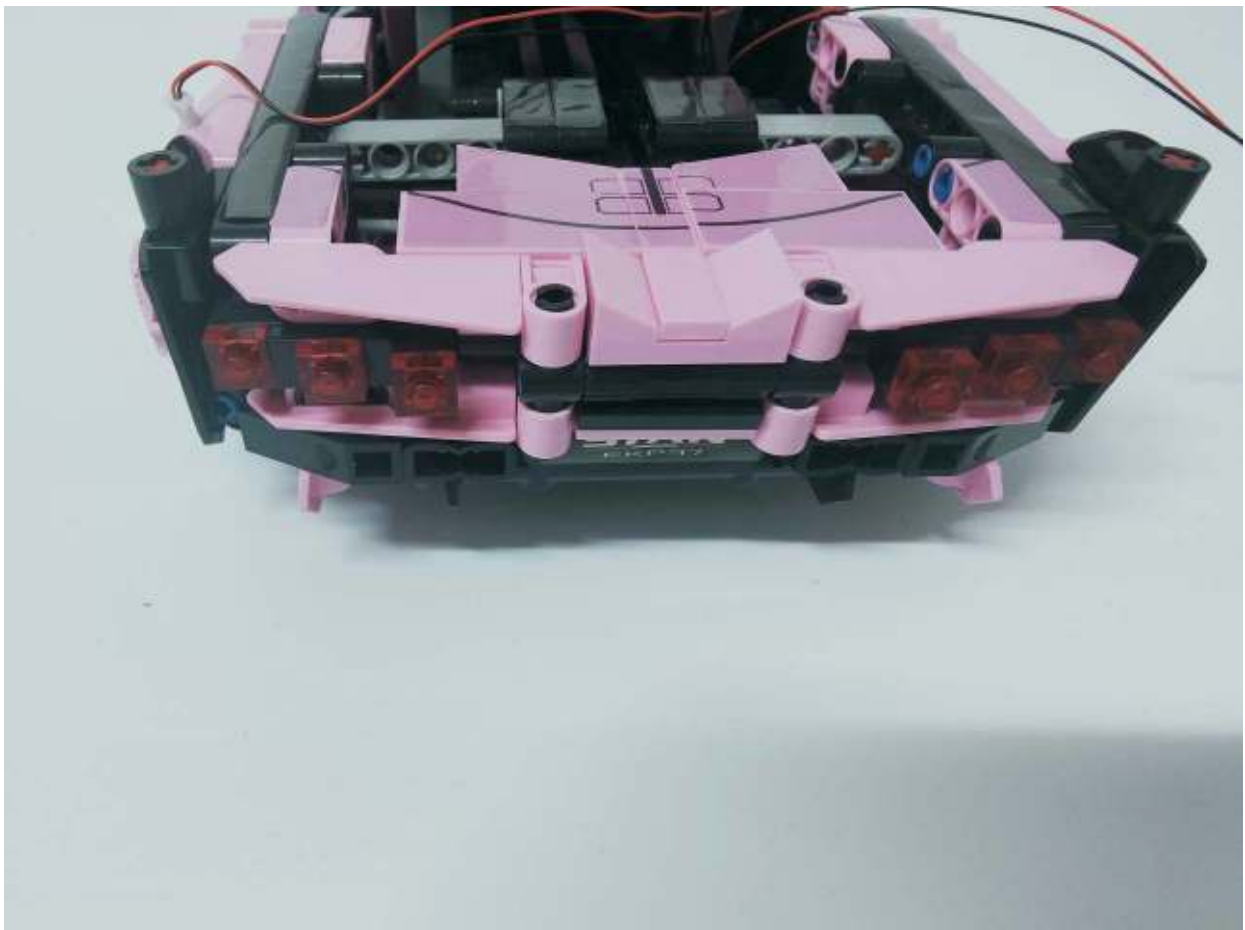

Open the D package and install the light group as follows

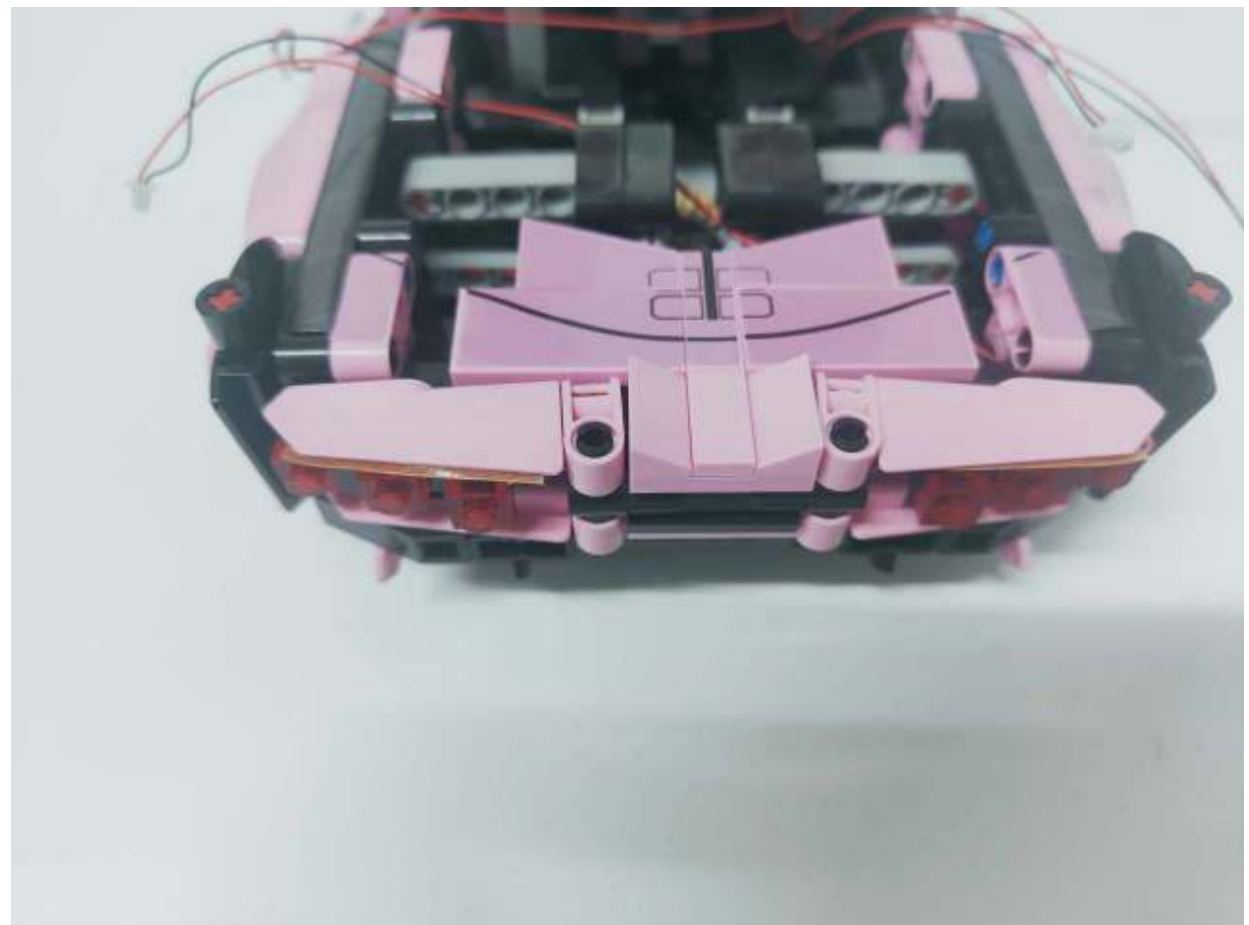

And it will be installed to the roof

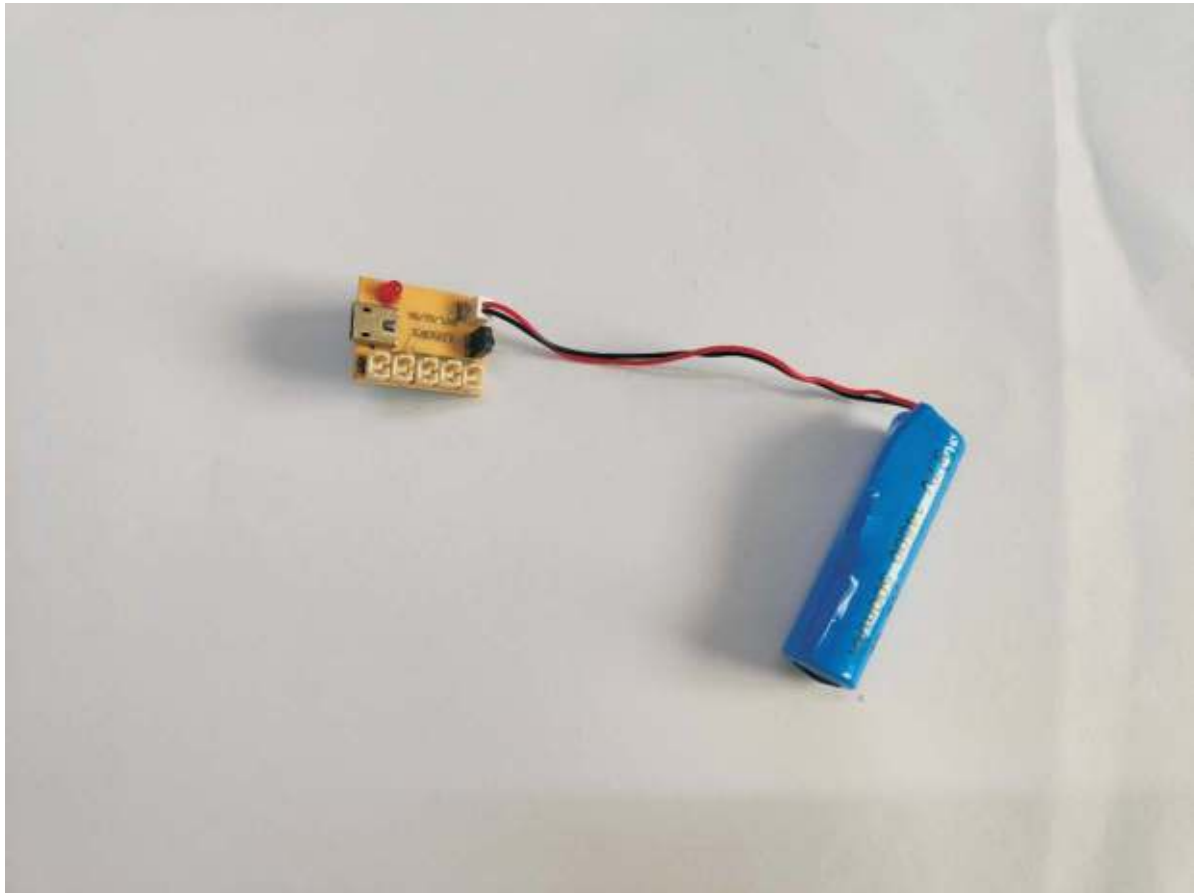

Turn on the E package and install the light group on the red blocks as follows

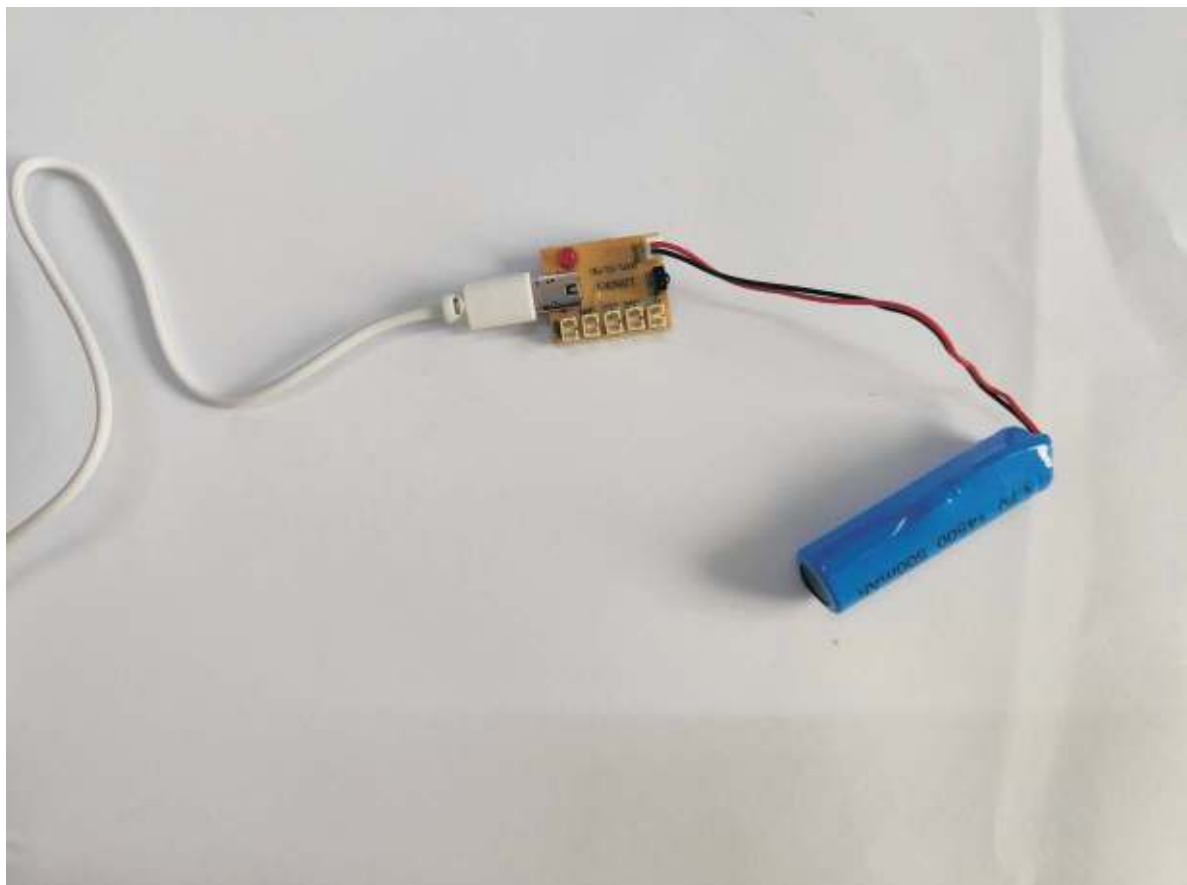

Hidden the wire in the building blocks

Connect the battery and the connecting board

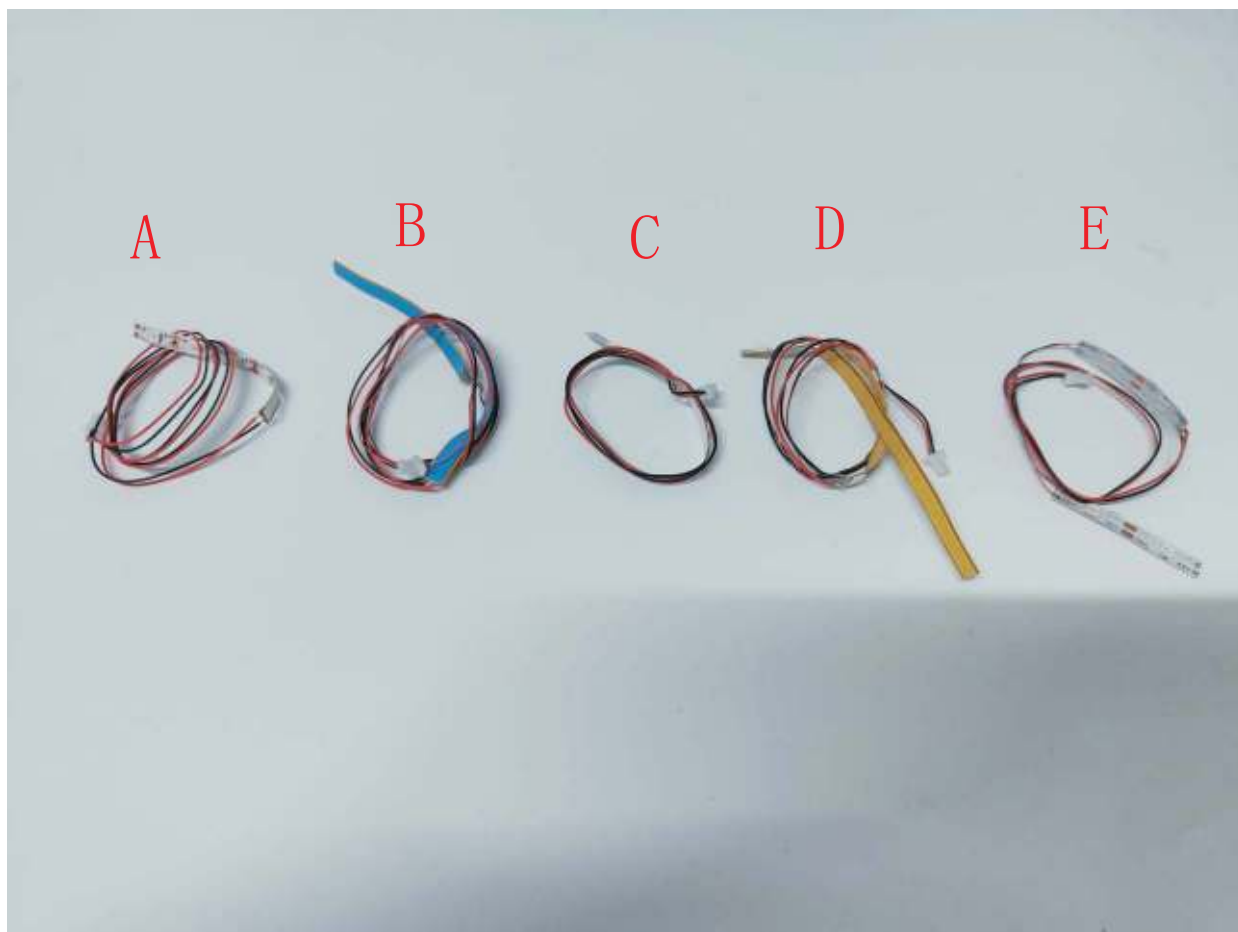

It can also be charged for use

Open the lamp group

Open the A package to install the light group as follows

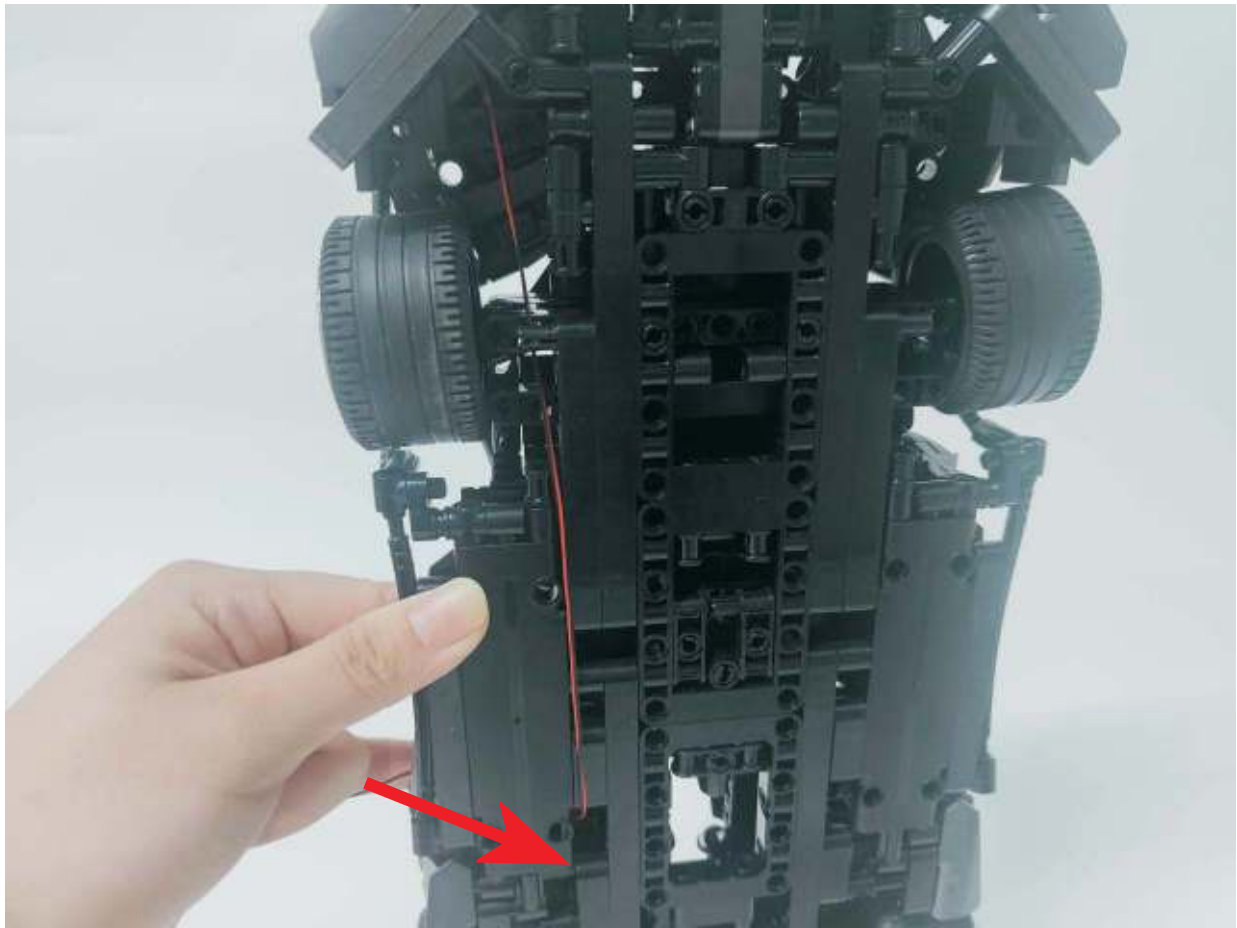

Wear the wire to the bottom

Cross the bottom and wear the wire into the arrow

Open the B package and install the light group as follows

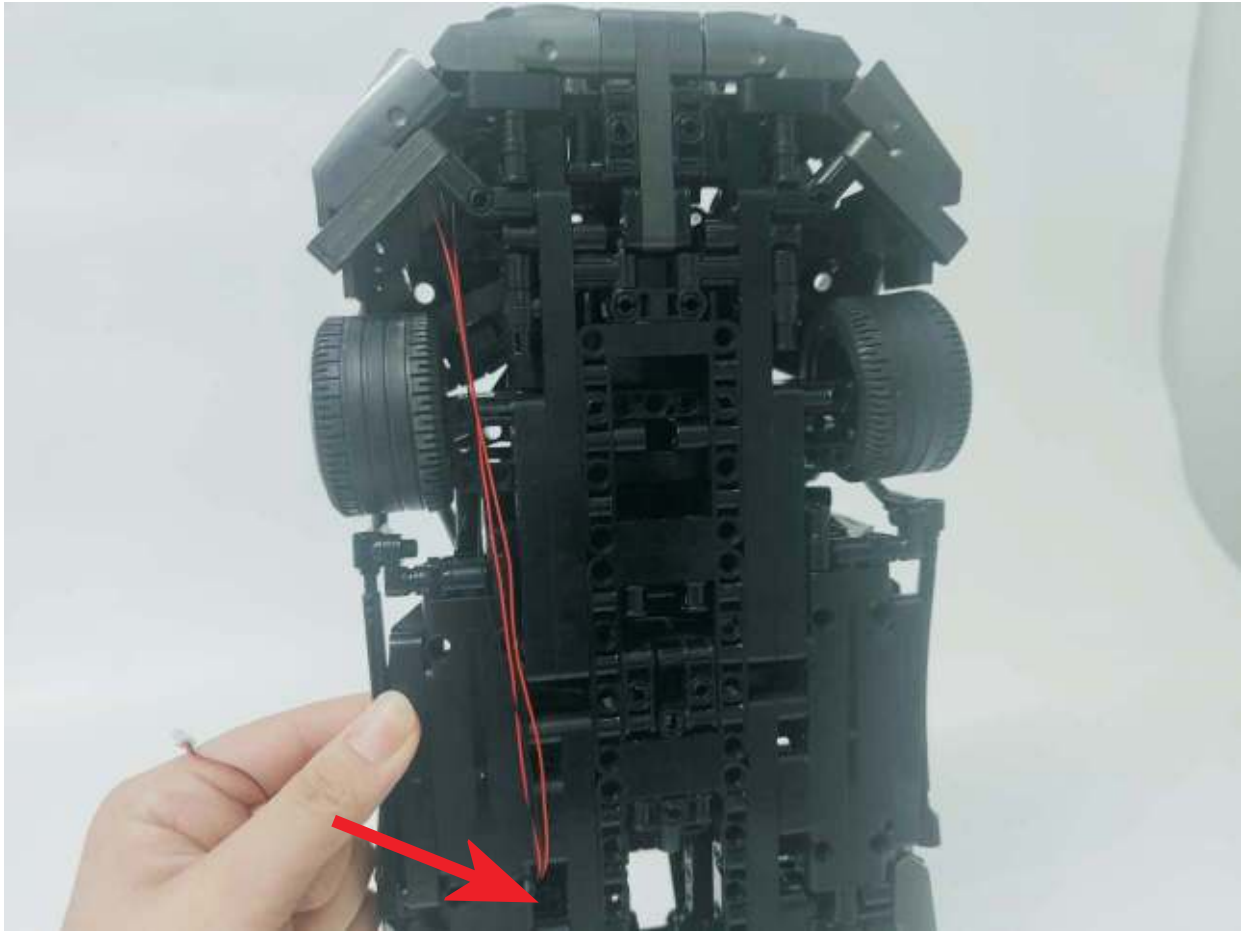

Pass the wire through the blocks to the bottom

Pass the wire through and into the position indicated by the arrow

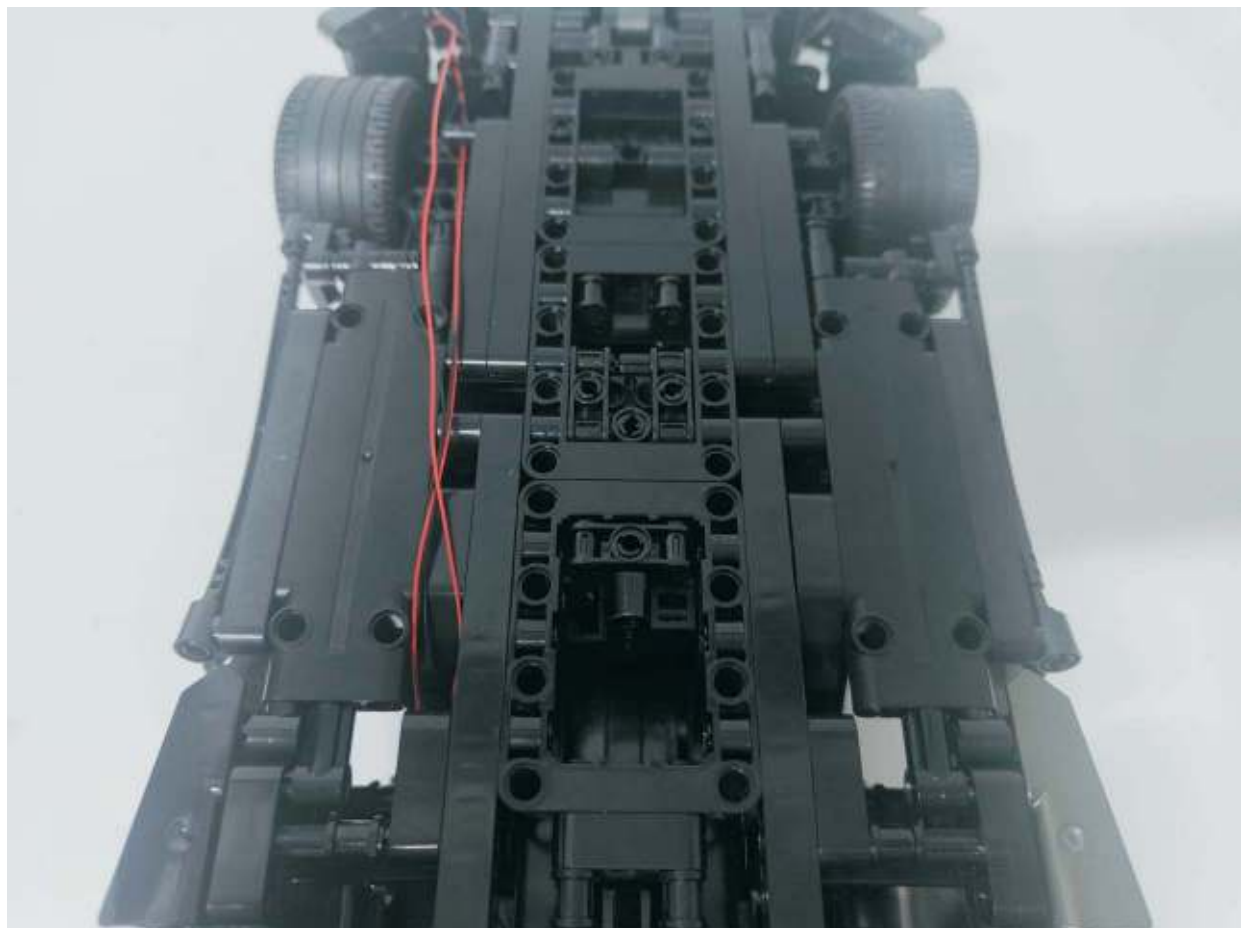

Open the C package and install the light group as follows

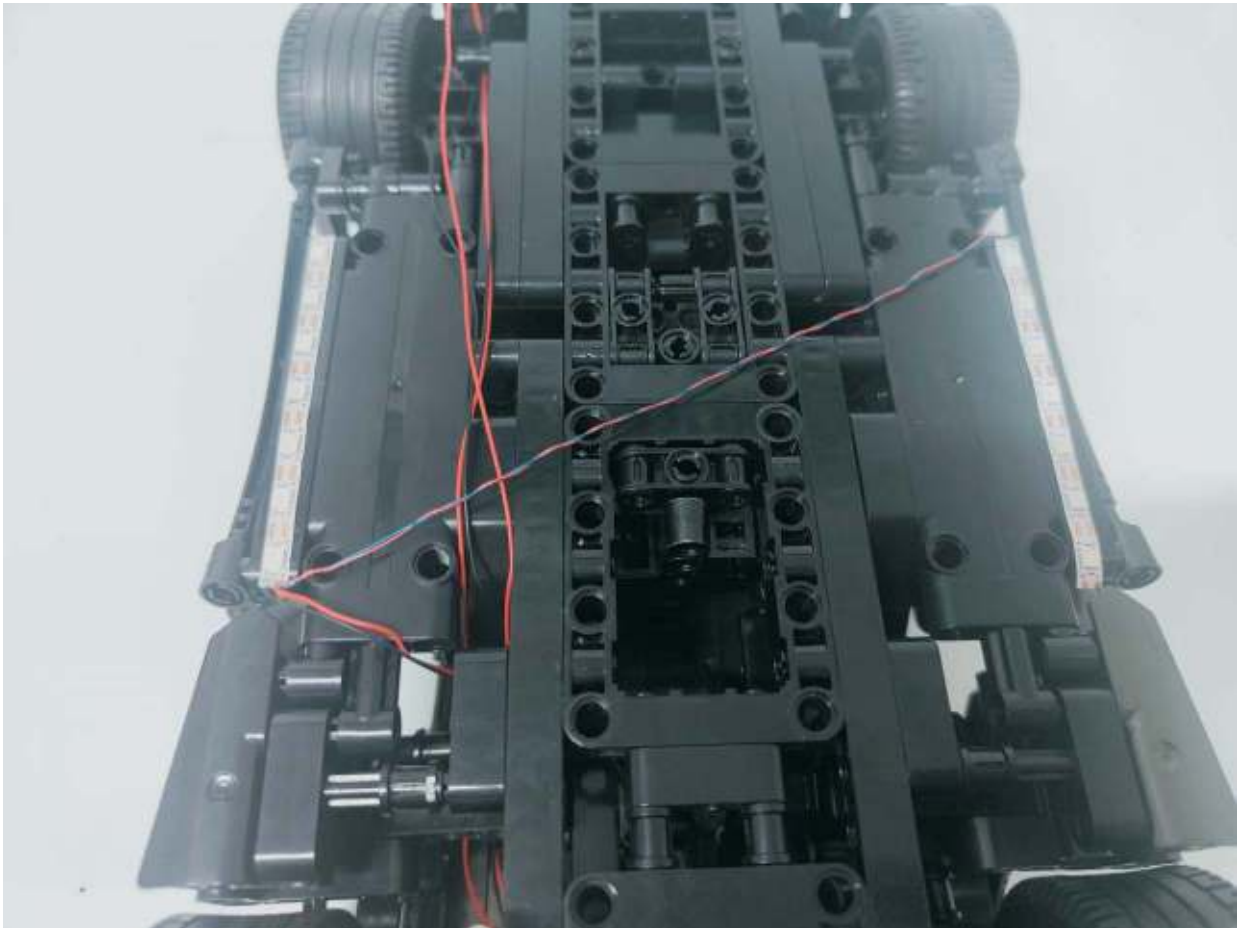

Pass the wire through the middle of the seat

Open the D package and install the light group as follows

Wear the wire as below to the roof

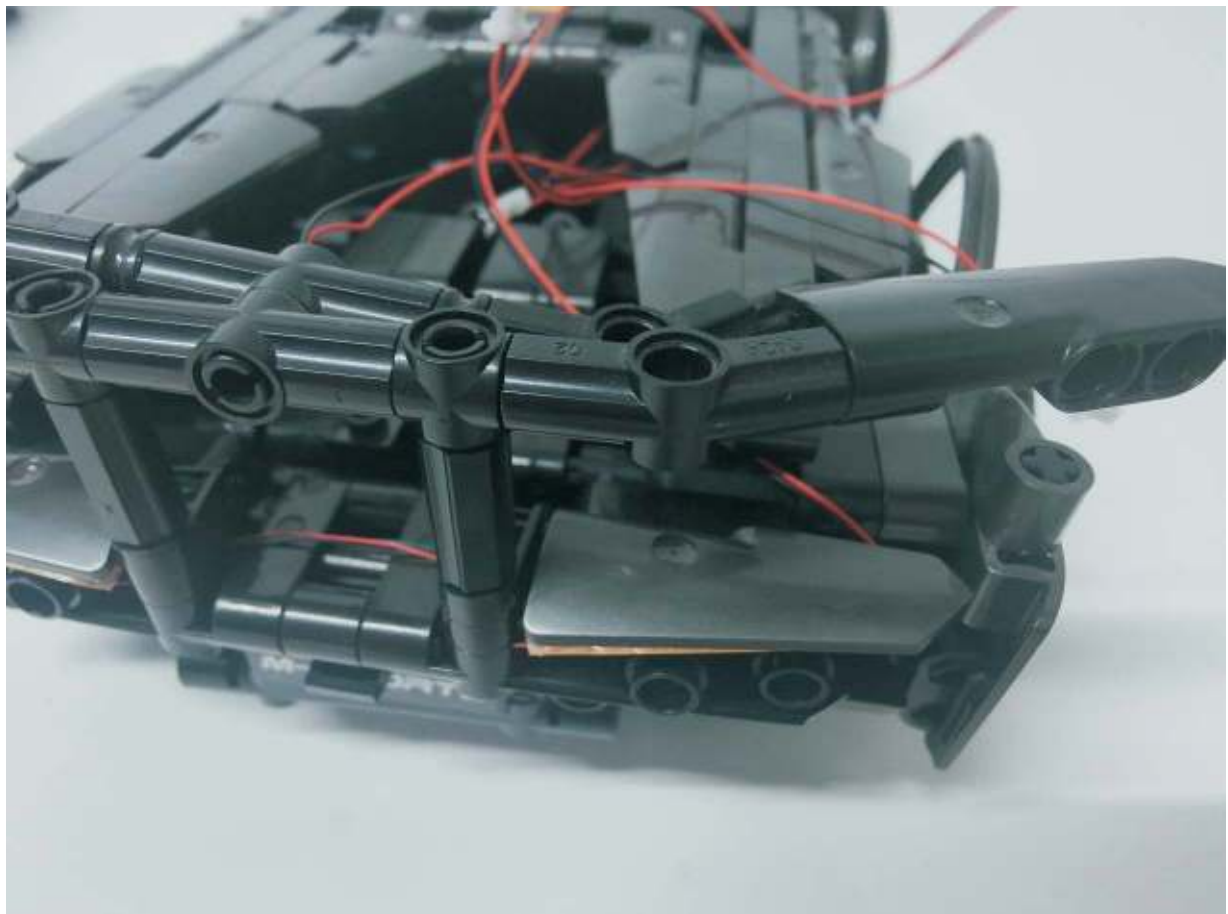

Open the E package and install the light group as follows

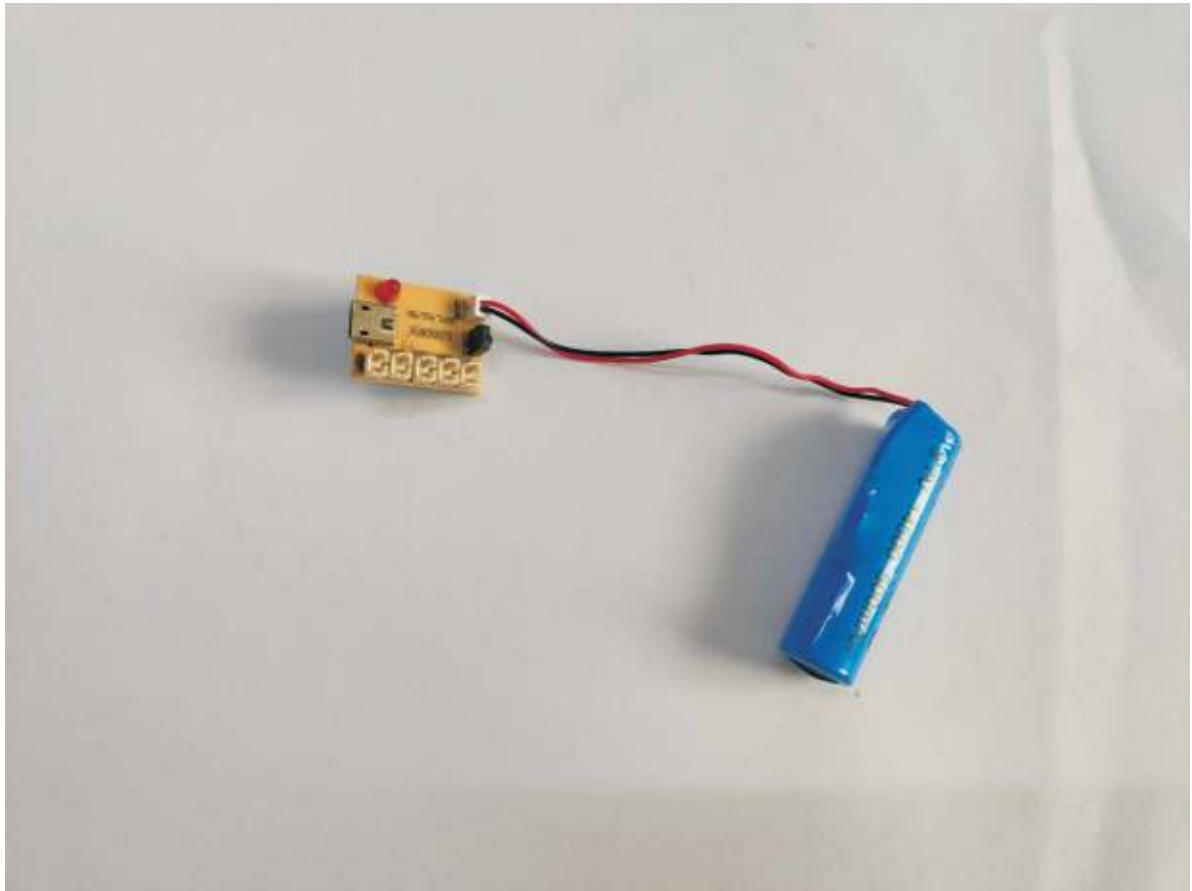

Hidden the wire in the building blocks

Connect the battery and the connecting board

It can also be charged for use

